

A cinematic winter scene featuring a large, dark red barn with a steep gabled roof. In the foreground, several sets of train tracks run parallel, receding into the distance. The ground is covered in a layer of snow, and the background consists of snow-laden evergreen trees under a heavy, overcast sky. Two small figures of people are standing near the barn's entrance, and a vintage car is partially visible on the right. The title 'The CIDER HOUSE RULES' is overlaid in a white, serif font, with 'The' in a smaller size and underlined.

Interdisciplinary Views on Abortion Susan A. Martinelli-Fernandez, Lori Baker-Sperry, Heather McIlvaine-Newsad, 2014-01-10 This book examines issues surrounding abortion and abortion practices in the United States through the perspectives of multiple disciplines including sociology anthropology philosophy community health theology and political science The essays parallel the interdisciplinary nature of feminist and women's studies situating abortion within a wider understanding of the impact of reproduction on women's lives and their health The contributing authors provide an accessible summary of the numerous topics surrounding abortion and the essays reflect both original research and scholarly discourse on existing research and literature Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here

Masterplots II: A-Conf Steven G. Kellman, 2000 Includes more than 360 interpretative essays on works of twentieth century fiction published in the United States and Latin America
American Taboo Lauren Rosewarne, 2013-08-13 America's often unspoken morality codes make many topics taboo in the land of the free This book analyzes hundreds of popular culture examples to expose how the media both avoids and alludes to how we derive pleasure from our bodies Flatulence male nudity abortion masturbation these are just a few of the taboo topics in the United States What do culturally enforced silences about certain subjects say about our society and our latent fears This work provides a broad yet detailed overview of popular culture's most avoided topics to explain why they remain off limits and examines how they are presented in contemporary media or in many cases delicately explored using euphemism and innuendo The author offers fascinating in depth analysis of the meaning behind these portrayals of a variety of both mundane and provocative taboos and identifies how new television programs films and advertising campaigns intentionally violate longstanding cultural taboos to gain an edge in the marketplace

Telling Stories in Book Clubs Mary Kooy, 2006-08-15 Mary Kooy's Telling Stories in Book Clubs gives us a compelling provocative and insightful picture of teachers reading talking and learning together By weaving together the responses of the novice teachers book club the experienced teachers book club and her own thoughtful analyses Kooy has documented what teacher learning looks like from the inside This book is a must read for all those interested in professional development across the lifespan Marilyn Cochran Smith Boston College Kooy s narrative about book clubs as learning communities makes a significant contribution to both research and practice Tying together reading teaching and learning the book gives us a superb example of how to nurture the intellectual and relational needs for continuous teacher growth and development The book is a must for teachers researchers and policymakers Ann Lieberman emeritus professor from Teachers College Columbia University and Senior Scholar at the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching Mary Kooy is a gifted writer and teacher She takes the obvious truth that we read books with other people and turns it into a compelling work of professional development We see the communities emerge and coalesce We see the self reflective questioning that is at the heart of all good teaching take shape through interaction and nurturing From the Foreword by Jo Anne Pagano Colgate University
