worldwide trend Emirati women's entry into leadership positions in all fields has resulted in social and economic benefits across education health commerce and community services all of which have strengthened the role of women at the grassroots level. As the world grows smaller the global circle of opportunity for women grows wider. Throughout the UAE and all across the globe women are assuming their rightful place as leaders in education and in society. The authors conducted a ten year collaborative narrative research project culminating in a book of jointly constructed stories of five exceptional female Emirati educational leaders. The five women from Dubai are Raja Al Gurg, Raya Rashid, Fatima Al Marri, Rafia Abbas and Rashida Badri. Through stories of lived experience this book recognizes the expertise and contributions of these women to the fields of education and leadership, provides exemplars for educators, demonstrates to younger generations what successes and challenges this generation of women faced in order to achieve recognition as successful women and members of the local, regional and global community, and makes their leadership perspectives and experiences accessible and engaging for all types of audiences.

Personal Well-Being Lessons for Secondary Schools: Positive psychology in action for 11 to 14 year olds Ilona Boniwell, Lucy Ryan, 2012-03-16. This book offers practitioners working with 11 to 14 year olds a highly practical education resource for running personal well being lessons backed up by scientific research from the field of positive psychology. The book is divided into six subject headings with six lessons offered per subject area. This will allow you to run a programme with between 6 to 36 lessons. The six core concepts within positive psychology for young people are Positive Self, Positive Body, Positive Emotions, Positive Mindsets, Positive Direction and Positive Relationships. The authors ensure that the lessons are easy to understand to lead and to manage by ensuring each lesson contains a suggested 60 minute outline lesson plan, the main body or the how to of running the lesson, suggested homework where appropriate, academic references and resources. This is a must have resource for PSHE teachers, SEAL coordinators, educational psychologists and youth and community workers looking to deliver a personal well being curriculum. Boniwell and Ryan provide an excellent synopsis of the current state of wellbeing literature focusing on evidence based studies and how these link into contemporary public policy. This underpins the work that Boniwell and Ryan have done to ensure that the hands on methodology outlined throughout the text is underscored by science that highlights the importance of each exercise.

Dr Mathew A White, Director Wellbeing Positive Education, St Peter's College, Australia and Fellow Melbourne Graduate School of Education, University of Melbourne, Australia.
