Seven Plus Seven Mysterious Life Rituals In Bali:

Seven Plus Seven Katharane Edson Mershon,1971 Seven Plus Seven Jonathan A. Cunitz,1971 Seven Plus Seven Katharane Edson Mershon,1971 Religion in Bali C. Hooykaas,2025-02-10 Cosmogony and Creation in Balinese Tradition C. Hooykaas,2013-12-01 Life is stranger than fiction Considerably so Judge from this The Javanese develop a feeling towards their afterbirth which is not thrown away at birth in the heathenish Western way but which gets a decent burial and has the name ari ari younger brother sister I know of a Javanese schoolgirl who wrote in an essay How couldn't I have tender feelings towards the spot where my ari ari lies buried The Balinese are in the happy position of having no less than four elder brothers sisters The concomitants of physical birth being the amniotic fluid the blood the vernix caseosa and the afterbirth together are the baby's kanda mpat his four elder brothers or her elder sisters in the case of a girl Though the first three due to their liquid state mostly disappear and receive little care the ari ari is carefully buried under a round riverstone of about one foot in diameter for a boy at the one side of the steps leading to the sleeping house for a girl at the other side The innumerable writings partially or completely dealing with the kanda mpat do not weary from inculcating their readers that the four are helpful as long as one gives them the material food and reverential thoughts they are entitled to in which case they from their side behave as true elder brothers U however one neglects and ignores them they punish their younger brother Desire, Divine and Demonic Michele Stephen,2005-03-31 This original and innovative book challenges many of our long held assumptions about traditional Balinese religion Drawing on data from visual art mythology esoteric texts and public rituals Michele Stephen identifies a core of important mystical themes at the heart of Balinese religion and demonstrates the striking parallels between these and Indian Tantric thought Desire Divine and Demonic begins with an introduction to the problems of defining mysticism in Bali a discussion of prevailing scholarly views concerning the nature of Balinese religion and a brief description of the link between art and religion in Balinese culture What follows is an intriguing analysis of two series of paintings by contemporary Balinese artists I Ketut Budiana and I Gusti Nyoman Mirdiana who specialize in mystical and mythological scenes Women of the Kakawin World Helen Creese,2015-01-28 In this fascinating study the lives and mores of women in one of the least understood but most densely populated areas of the world are unveiled through the eyes of generations of court poets For more than a millennium the poets of the Indic courts of Java and Bali composed epic kakawin poems in which they recreated the court environment where they and their royal patrons lived Major themes in this poetry form include war love and marriage It is a rich source for the cultural and social history of Indonesia Still being produced in Bali today kakawin remain of interest and relevance to Balinese cultural and religious identities This book draws on the epic kakawin poetry tradition to examine the institutions of courtship and marriage in the Indic courts Its primary purpose is to explore the experiences of women belonging to the kakawin world although the texts by nature reveal more about the discourses concerning women sexuality and gender than of the historical experiences of individual women For over a thousand years these royal courts were major patrons of the arts The court sponsored epic works that have survived provide an ongoing literary testimony to the cultural and social concerns of court society from its earliest recorded history until its demise at the end of the nineteenth century This study examines the idealized images of women and sexuality that have pervaded Javanese and Balinese culture and provides insights into a number of cultural practices such as sati or bela self immolation of widows

Bali and the Tourist Industry David Shavit,2019-07-18 The island of Bali s sensational image was created by the tourists artists and scholars who visited the tiny nation between the two world wars A Dutch colony from 1908 Bali was a source of revenue for the Dutch government which began to develop its image as the ultimate vacation spot The tourism industry spread the idea of Bali as a paradise in which noble happy spiritual Balinese all prodigiously creative artists lived in innocence Sensual images of beautiful people on an enchanted isle unspoiled by modernity predominated Bali also acquired a reputation as a homosexual paradise A host of books and articles fed these images of Bali until it evolved into one of the most romantic stops on the tourist itinerary The Balinese people however made little profit from the tourist traffic This history of the development of tourism in Bali stretches from the Dutch occupation in 1906 to the Japanese occupation in 1942 After exhaustive research in published records and in unpublished letters diaries and oral histories left by many of the American and European visitors to the island as well as the Balinese residents the author explores the reasons for Bali s popularity among Westerners and their effects on the native culture

Bali in the Early Nineteenth Century Helen M. Creese,2016-05-30 In Bali in the Early Nineteenth Century Helen Creese examines the nature of the earliest sustained cross cultural encounter between the Balinese and the Dutch through the eyewitness accounts of Pierre Dubois the first colonial official to live in Bali From 1828 to 1831 Dubois served as Civil Administrator to the Badung court in southern Bali He later recorded his Balinese experiences for the Batavian Society of Arts and Sciences in a series of personal letters to an anonymous correspondent This first ethnography of Bali provides rich perceptive descriptions of early nineteenth century Balinese politics society religion and culture The book includes a complete edition and translation of Dubois L g re Id e de Balie en 1830 Sketch of Bali in 1830

Performance in Java and Bali B. Arps,2005-06-27 The studies in this book examine traditional performance genres in the Indonesian islands of Java and Bali They cover puppet and human theatre dance sung narrative narrative temple reliefs and vocal and instrumental music span a period of more than a thousand years and range over four cultural complexes Sundanese in western Java Javanese in central and eastern Java Chinese in eastern Java and Balinese in Bali
