- Introductory paragraph (required) & Draft #2 due (optional): Thursday, May 29, by class
- Final Revision due: Tuesday, June 3, by class

Paper Format: 2800+ words; 1.5 spacing; separate title page including name, title, and date; page numbers; in-text citations and works cited in MLA form; 1" margins; visual evidence (as appropriate) with captions.

Submission Format: Electronic posting of all materials to your student portfolio as they are due (this includes title pages, reflective memos, abstracts, works cited as they are due).

Grading: This assignment is worth 35% of the overall class grade.

Recommended Envision reading: Chapters 6 & 7

ASSIGNMENT GOALS

This assignment has three interrelated goals:

1. To ask you to take on a sophisticated research project, working with both primary and secondary sources, on a subject related to the intersection of gender and technology.
2. To encourage you to develop skills in delivering complex research effectively in written form.
3. To help you develop skills in presenting a powerful and articulate argument about a topic, using evidence to substantiate your claims.

DETAILED ASSIGNMENT

All PWR 2 students are required to complete an extended piece of academically rigorous research writing, designed to reinforce the skills learned in PWR: research strategies; deliberate use of rhetoric; clear and forceful argumentation.

Your research paper should include an argumentative thesis that represents your own claims about your topic. This thesis should be supported by evidence derived from both primary and secondary research. You should utilize at least 12 sources and, as applicable, fieldwork (interviews, surveys, etc.) -- in many cases, you

Generative AI in the English Composition Classroom Daniel Plate, Elizabeth Melick, James Hutson, Susan Edele, 2024-09-18. Designed to cater to the needs of both novice and seasoned writing instructors, this book provides a range of practical and adaptable strategies for integrating generative artificial intelligence (AI) into English writing curricula. Generative AI in the English Composition Classroom proposes strategic methodologies to ensure that AI is utilized as a facilitator of learning and creativity rather than as a shortcut to academic success. With a particular emphasis on sophisticated large language models such as Claude ChatGPT and Gemini, this book critically addresses potential challenges, including concerns related to academic integrity. It includes case studies and practical strategies to exemplify how AI can enhance the writing process while emphasizing the continuing importance of a solid foundation in writing structure, processes, and rhetorical strategies. These case studies and strategies are designed for immediate application, offering educators and students practical tools to effectively navigate AI-augmented writing environments. Finally, the book looks to the future, discussing the evolving skillsets required in the workforce and how educators can equip students for a future in which AI is an integral component. A forward-thinking and invaluable guide, this book will be of interest to educators involved in teaching English Composition and writing.

Teaching Discipline-Specific Literacies in Grades 6-12 Vicky I. Zygoris-Coe, 2014-10-30. Comprehensive, timely, and relevant, this text offers an approach to discipline-specific literacy instruction that is aligned with the Common Core State Standards and the needs of teachers, students, and secondary schools across the nation. It is essential that teachers know how to provide instruction that both develops content and literacy knowledge and skills and aims at reducing student achievement gaps. Building on the research-supported premise that discipline-specific reading instruction is key to achieving these goals, this text provides practical guidance and strategies for prospective and practicing content area teachers and other educators on how to prepare all students to succeed in college and the workforce. Pedagogical features in each chapter engage readers in digging deeper and in applying the ideas and strategies presented in their own contexts.
