Group Decision Making under Multiple Criteria Ching-Lai Hwang, Ming-Jeng Lin, 2012-12-06 This monograph is intended for an advanced undergraduate or graduate course of engineering and management science as well as for persons in business industry military or in any field who want an introductory and a capsule look into the methods of group decision making under multiple criteria This is a sequel to our previous works entitled Multiple Objective Decision Making Methods and Applications No 164 of the Lecture Notes and Multiple Attribute Decision Making Methods and Applications No 186 of the Lecture Notes Moving from a single decision maker the consideration of Lecture Notes 164 and 186 to a multiple decision maker setting introduces a great deal of complexity into the analysis The problem is no longer the selection of the most preferred alternative among the nondominated solutions according to one individual s single decision maker s preference structure The analysis is extended to account for the conflicts among different interest groups who have different objectives goals and so forth Group decision making under multiple criteria includes such diverse and interconnected fields as preference analysis utility theory social choice theory committee decision theory theory of voting game theory expert evaluation analysis aggregation of qualitative factors economic equilibrium theory etc these are simplified and systematically classified for beginners This work is to provide readers with a capsule look into the existing methods their characteristics and applicability in the complexity of group decision making Score Cards for Judging Clothing Selection and Construction Ruth O'Brien, Maude Campbell, Mary Aleen Davis, 1927 Her World, Women and Fashion in Singapore 1974-1989 Nadya Wang, 2025-07-24 Between 1974 and 1989 significant changes were taking place in the lives of Singaporean women and in their local fashion industry These shifts were not only reflected in but actively shaped by the magazine Her World In Her World Women and Fashion in Singapore Nadya Wang uses dress as a lens through which to view fragments of the magazine over 15 years Advocating for a new and decentred understanding of the evolution of the Singapore woman Wang s writing also traces the creation of a fashion industry that pivoted from seeking validation from global fashion cities to establishing itself as the lead of a Southeast Asian fashion community Visual analysis of archival materials is combined with oral history interviews to demonstrate how the women of Singapore engaged with local and global ideas fashion and beauty commodities and imagery of models and beauty queens in their self fashioning Challenging existing understandings of their agency this book attests to the creativity and adaptability of Singapore women and Singapore fashion designers Democratic Reform in Africa Connie Park Rice, Marie Tedesco, 2015-03-15 Scholars of southern Appalachia have largely focused their research on men particularly white men While there have been a few important studies of Appalachian women no one book has offered a broad overview across time and place With this collection editors Connie Park Rice and Marie Tedesco redress this imbalance telling the stories of these women and calling attention to the varied backgrounds of those who call the mountains home The essays of Women of the Mountain South debunk the entrenched stereotype of Appalachian women as poor and white and shine a long overdue spotlight on women too often neglected in the history of the region Each author focuses on a particular individual or group but together they illustrate the diversity of women who live in the region and the depth of their life experiences The Mountain South has been home to Native American African American Latina and white women both rich and poor Civil rights and gay rights advocates environmental and labor activists prostitutes and coal miners all have lived in the place called the Mountain South and enriched its history and culture

Queens of Academe Karen W. Tice, 2012-03-09 Universities are unlikely venues for grading bodies beauty poise and style Nonetheless thousands of college women have sought not only college diplomas but campus beauty titles and tiaras throughout the twentieth century and the cultural power of beauty pageants continues into the twenty first In Queens of Academe Karen W Tice asks how and why does higher education remain in the beauty and body business and with what effects on student bodies and identities Drawing on archival research and interviews as well as hundreds of hours observing college pageants on predominantly black and white campuses Tice argues the pageants help to illuminate the shifting iterations of class race religion culture sexuality and gender braided into campus rituals and student life Moving beyond a binary of objectification versus empowerment Tice offers a nuanced analysis of the making of idealized collegiate masculinities and femininities and the stylization of higher education itself Measuring Landscape Esthetics Terry C.
