

Grades 3-5 Narrative Writing Rubric
Ms. Long's writing 1

Joint School District No. 2
 Adapted from Great Source Rubrics

3rd-5th Narrative	4	3	2	1
Ideas	An unforgettable experience is shared using descriptive details that make the narrative truly memorable.	An interesting experience is shared with descriptive details that help create the interest. Some parts may need more details.	The narrative needs to focus on one experience. Some descriptive details do not fit the narrative or details are missing.	The narrative needs to share an experience and use descriptive details.
Organization	The organization makes the narrative enjoyable and easy to read.	The narrative is well organized, with a clear plot/sequence of events (beginning, middle, and ending). Most of the transitions are helpful.	The plot/sequence of events (beginning, middle, and ending) runs together or because parts of the story are undeveloped or lack transitions. The order of events is unclear.	The narrative needs to be reorganized.
Voice	The voice creates an unforgettable experience.	The voice creates interest in the narrative. Dialogue is used.	The voice is weak. More dialogue is needed.	The voice shows no involvement in the narrative. Dialogue is needed.
Word Choice	Exceptional word choice through the use of specific nouns, strong verbs, and well-chosen modifiers captures the experience.	Specific nouns and strong verbs are used. Modifiers are needed to create a clearer picture.	General and overused words do not create a clear picture.	Word choice has not been considered.
Sentence Fluency	The sentences are skillfully written, original, and interesting.	The sentences show variety and are usually easy to read and understand.	Many short or incomplete sentences need to be combined to keep the writing from being choppy.	Most sentences need to be rewritten. Help is needed.
Conventions	Grammar and punctuation are correct, and the writing is free of spelling errors.	The narrative has a few errors in punctuation, spelling, or grammar that do not cause confusion.	Errors in conventions cause confusion.	Many errors make the narrative confusing and hard to read. Help is needed to make corrections.

experiences being subjected to and living with abuse during my childhood and early adult years in the Lubavitch Chabad community in Brooklyn New York I discuss the effects this physical emotional and psychological abuse had on my development and life which resulted in my leaving this community and lifestyle When I grew up in this community the topic of abuse was either denied or spoken about in whispers Generally even if abuse of a child was known it was not reported to law enforcement and the child was not protected from further abuse The topic of reporting such crimes to the law enforcement authorities for eventual criminal prosecution is referred to as mosur a term of revilement Such a person regardless of the crime s committed is protected by the Jewish community and the victim is forced to face the abuse by himself herself without the benefit of communal embrace for resolution Moreover Jewish law excoriates a mosur informer by exclusion from normative communal membership These exclusions are embodied in codes of Jewish law which formalizes the process by vilifying the informer The victim thereby faces a double attack The first is by the predator and the second by the code of silence forced upon the victim The primary focus of this book regards the physical attack I endured at the hands of my mother She was angered by my non diligence in religious study motivating her to try to break my arm I was eight years old at the time And she was following the actions of another mother who broke the arm of her son for the same perverse reason this attack was a life changing event It forced to identify my mother and others as persons who represented a great danger to me necessitating measures that resulted in distance and eventual examination of the fundamentals of this religious life and identity I describe the other Jewish family that similarly abused a child Similar to my own circumstance no investigation or prosecution was ever conducted I remain convinced other families from these ultra Orthodox Charedi Jewish communities experienced similar or worse violence but such violence was muted and not reported My father was aware of the attack but did not intervene I discuss the details of the abuse as well as its aftermath and the larger concatenates these events caused in my life I conclude my narrative by stating that these acts and especially community refusal to acknowledge and respond is shameful and indefensible A few persons reviewed this material prior to publication While I remain grateful for their comments and recommendations the publication reflects my own insights and I remain responsible for any errors or oversights
