

Fris Frikkie se flukse familie ry graag fiets. Eers trek hulle almal hul fietsryfrokkies aan. Mamma maak 'n groot fles koffie, want daar is nie 'n kafee op pad na die ou fabriek nie. Die toebroodjies en frikkadelle draai sy in foelie toe.

Sy pak alles in die sak met die fraaiings. Sy onthou ook babasussie se fopspeen en die kamera. Eers moet pappa net gou 'n nuwe film in die kamera sit. Sy wonder wie 'n foto van die hele familie sal neem. Pappa frons, want die swart flits is weg en sê netnou dit word donker.

"Wie weet waar die flits is?" vra pappa. "As ons nie die flits kry nie sal ons die fakkel moet saamneem," sê Frikkie. "Is daar fyn feetjies in die ou fabriek, pappa?" vra Friedel.

"Nee, ek glo nie, maar langs die pad sal ons mooi flaminke sien. Ons sal ook baie voëltjies sien fladder. Ons moet net fluister anders skrik hulle." Pappa fluit vrolik terwyl hulle so ry. Gelukkig is die familie fiks en kan hulle flink en vinnig tot by die fabriek ry.

Na 'n heerlike uitstappie is die hele familie stokflou. Nadat hulle na die flikkerende sterre gekyk het, kruip hulle in die vere. Net pappa bly nog wakker, want hy wil eers gou die boek klaar lees.

Claiming the City in South African Literature Meg Samuelson, 2021-08-23 This book demonstrates the insights that literature brings to transdisciplinary urban studies and particularly to the study of cities of the South Starting from the claim staked by mining capital in the late nineteenth century and its production of extractive and segregated cities it surveys over a century of writing in search of counterclaims through which the literature reimagines the city as a place of assembly and attachment Focusing on how the South African city has been designed to funnel gold into the global economy and to service an enclaved minority the study looks to the literary city to advance a contrary emphasis on community conviviality and care An accessible and informative introduction to literature of the South African city at significant historical junctures this book will also be of great interest to scholars and students in urban studies and Global South studies African Books in Print, 1978 Maternity and Child Welfare, 1924 Studies in Short Fiction, 1970 The Methuen Drama Guide to Contemporary South African Theatre Martin Middeke, Peter Paul Schnierer, 2015-11-19 South Africa has a uniquely rich and diverse theatre tradition which has responded energetically to the country's remarkable transition helping to define the challenges and contradictions of this young democracy This volume considers the variety of theatre forms and the work of the major playwrights and theatre makers producing work in democratic South Africa It offers an overview of theatre pioneers and theatre forms in Part One before concentrating on the work of individual playwrights in Part Two Through its wide ranging survey of indigenous drama written predominantly in the English language and the analysis of more than 100 plays a detailed account is provided of post apartheid South African theatre and its engagement with the country's recent history Part One offers six overview chapters on South African theatre pioneers and theatre forms These include consideration of the work of artists such as Barney Simon Mbongeni Ngema Phyllis Klotz the collaborations of William Kentridge and the Handspring Puppet Company the work of Magnet Theatre and of physical and popular community theatre forms Part Two features chapters on twelve major playwrights including Athol Fugard Reza de Wet Lara Foot Zakes Mda Ya l Farber Mpumelelo Paul Grootboom Mike van Graan and Brett Bailey It includes a survey of emerging playwrights and significant plays and the book closes with an interview with Aubrey Sekhabi the Artistic Director of the South African State Theatre in Pretoria Written by a team of over twenty leading international scholars The Methuen Drama Guide to Contemporary South African Theatre is a unique resource that will be invaluable to students and scholars from a range of different disciplines as well as theatre practitioners The Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record, 1928 London Calling, 1947 Los Angeles Magazine, 2001-07 Los Angeles magazine is a regional magazine of national stature Our combination of award winning feature writing investigative reporting service journalism and design covers the people lifestyle culture entertainment fashion art and architecture and news that define Southern California Started in the spring of 1961 Los Angeles magazine has been addressing the needs and interests of our region for 48 years The magazine continues

Bessie Head Huma Ibrahim, 1996 One of the foremost African writers of our time who dispelled the silence between colonial and feminist discourses by talking back Bessie Head at last gets her due in this first book length comprehensive study of her work This book locates Head's unquestionable importance in the canon of African literature Author Huma Ibrahim argues that unless we are able to look at the merging of women's sexual and linguistic identity with their political and gendered identity the careful configurations created in Head's work will elude us Ibrahim offers a series of thoughtful readings informed by feminist diasporan postcolonial and poststructuralist insights and concerns She identifies a theme she calls exilic consciousness the desire to belong and traces its manifestations through each phase of Head's work showing how women's talk a marginalized commodity in the construction of southern Africa is differently embodied and evaluated Bessie Head's works are frequently featured in courses in African literature third world literature and fiction writing but there is little critical material on them Ibrahim offers readings of Head's novels When Rain Clouds Gather Maru and A Question of Power as well as the collections Tales of Tenderness and Power A Collector of Treasures A Woman Alone Autobiographical Writings and The Cardinals the histories Serowe Village of the Rain Wind and A Bewitched Crossroad and her letters to Robert Vigne collected in A Gesture of Belonging In Head's exploration of oppressed people especially women and those in exile Ibrahim finds startling insights into institutional power relations Head not only subverts Western hegemonic notions of the third world woman but offers a critique of postcoloniality

From Memory to Marble Elizabeth Rankin, Rolf Michael Schneider, 2020-02-10 For the first time the 92 metre frieze of the Voortrekker Monument in Pretoria one of the largest historical narratives in marble has been made the subject of a book The pictorial narrative of the Boer pioneers who conquered South Africa's interior during the Great Trek 1835-52 represents a crucial period of South Africa's past Conceptualising the frieze both reflected on and contributed to the country's socio political debates in the 1930s and 1940s when it was made The book considers the active role the Monument played in the rise of Afrikaner nationalism and the development of apartheid as well as its place in post apartheid heritage The frieze is unique in that it provides rare evidence of the complex processes followed in creating a major monument Based on unpublished documents drawings and models these processes are unfolded step by step from the earliest discussions of the purpose and content of the frieze through all the stages of its design to its shipping to post war Italy to be copied into marble from Monte Altissimo up to its final installation in the Monument The book examines how visual representation transforms historical memory in what it chooses to recount and the forms in which it is depicted The second volume expands on the first by investigating each of the twenty seven scenes of the frieze in depth providing new insights into not only the frieze but also South Africa's history Fran ois van Schalkwyk of African Minds co publisher with De Gruyter writes From Memory to Marble is an open access monograph in the true sense of the word Both volumes of the digital version of the book are available in full and free of charge from the date of publication This approach to publishing democratizes access to the latest scholarly publications across the globe At the same time a book such as From Memory to Marble with its unique and exquisite photographs of the frieze as well as its wealth of reproduced archival materials demands reception of a more traditional kind that is on the printed page For this reason the book is likewise available in print as two separate volumes The printed and digital books should not be seen as separate incarnations each brings its own advantages working together to extend the reach and utility of From Memory to Marble to a range of interested readers Southern Africa Today, 1991 J.R.R.
