Malled Caitlin Kelly, 2012-07-31 One woman's midcareer misadventures in the absurd world of American retail After losing her job as a journalist and the security of a good salary Caitlin Kelly was hard up for cash When she saw that The North Face an upscale outdoor clothing company was hiring at her local mall she went for an interview almost on a whim Suddenly she found herself middle aged and mid career thrown headfirst into the bizarre alternate reality of the American mall a world of low wage workers selling overpriced goods to well to do customers At first Kelly found her part time job fun and reaffirming a way to maintain her sanity and sense of self worth But she describes how the unexpected physical pressures the unreasonable dictates of a remote corporate bureaucracy and the dead end career path eventually took their toll As she struggled through more than two years at the mall despite surgeries customer abuse and corporate inanity Kelly gained a deeper understanding of the plight of the retail worker In the tradition of Nickel and Dimed Malled challenges our assumptions about the world of retail documenting one woman's struggle to find meaningful work in a broken system

The Middle of Somewhere Sara L. Hartman, Bob Klein, 2023-07-11 Highlights innovative partnership practices that help create educational opportunities for students in rural schools across the United States As editors Sara L Hartman and Bob Klein acknowledge rural places have long experienced systemic inequities that decrease rural students access to education yet many rural schools and communities have found creative means to make up for the dearth of outside resources The Middle of Somewhere brings to light a wide variety of partnerships that have been forged between K 12 schools communities and postsecondary institutions to improve educational access The book showcases collaborations that address three different areas of need partnerships that prepare and support teacher candidates and educators who work in rural areas partnerships that extend the work of rural education networks and partnerships that promote equity justice and inclusion within rural populations Using case studies of rural educational partnerships from communities across the United States the book's contributors share their experiences of how strong partnerships have formed both organically and through thoughtful and intentional planning and they recommend supportive strategies for their development and sustainment The contributors also explore the many ways in which university school community partnerships incubate solutions to challenges common to rural education systems such as access to STEM education and higher education The programs featured here may serve as replicable models for practitioners researchers and policy makers who want to enrich the experiences of children in their schools and communities Changing Conceptions, Changing Practices Angela Glotfelter, Caitlin Martin, Mandy Olejnik, Ann

Updike, Elizabeth Wardle, 2022-12-28 Changing Conceptions Changing Practices demonstrates that it is possible for groups of faculty members to change teaching and learning in radical ways across their programs despite the current emphasis on efficiency and accountability Relating the experiences of faculty from disciplines as diverse as art history economics psychology and philosophy this book offers a theory and research based heuristic for helping faculty transform their courses and programs as well as practical examples of the heuristic in action The authors draw on the threshold concepts framework research in writing studies and theories of learning leadership and change to deftly explore why faculty are often stymied in their efforts to design meaningful curricula for deep learning and how carefully scaffolded professional development for faculty teams can help make such change possible This book is a powerful demonstration of how faculty members can be empowered when professional development leaders draw on a range of scholarship that is not typically connected In today's climate courses programs and institutions are often assessed by and rewarded for proxy metrics that have little to do with learning with grave consequences for students The stakes have never been higher particularly for public higher education Faculty members need opportunities to work together using their own expertise and to enact meaningful learning opportunities for students Professional developers have an important role to play in such change efforts WAC scholars and practitioners leaders of professional development and centers for teaching excellence program administrators and curriculum committees from all disciplines and faculty innovators from many fields will find not only hope but also a blueprint for action in Changing Conceptions Changing Practices Contributors Juan Carlos Albarrán Jos Amador Annie Dell Aria Kate de Medeiros Keith Fennen Jordan A Fenton Carrie E Hall Elena Jackson Albarrán Erik N Jensen Vrinda Kalia Janice Kinghorn Jennifer Kinney Sheri Leafgren Elaine Maimon Elaine Miller Gaile Pohlhaus Jr Jennifer J Quinn Barbara J Rose Scott Sander Brian D Schultz Ling Shao L James Smart Pepper Stetler

Mathematics Helene J. Sherman,Lloyd I. Richardson,George J. Yard,2019-03-07 Highly regarded by instructors in past editions for its sequencing of topics and extensive set of exercises the latest edition of Abstract Algebra retains its concrete approach with its gentle introduction to basic background material and its gradual increase in the level of sophistication as the student progresses through the book Abstract concepts are introduced only after a careful study of important examples Beachy and Blair s clear narrative presentation responds to the needs of inexperienced students who stumble over proof writing who understand definitions and theorems but cannot do the problems and who want more examples that tie into their previous experience The authors introduce chapters by indicating why the material is important and at the same time relating the new material to things from the student s background and linking the subject matter of the chapter to the broader picture Building proficiency in learning mathematics by tailoring instruction to students specific misconceptions and learning needs is the backbone of this indispensable text written for K 8 pre and inservice teachers as well tutors An important theme is that long term retention is based on a strong conceptual foundation of numeracy and on a well designed learning environment Each chapter deals with a different mathematics topic including whole numbers fractions decimals as well as time and money Chapters also include examples of error patterns and specific well defined strategies and activities for diagnosis prescription and remediation New to this edition is a chapter devoted to English language learners The complexities of language barriers are delineated along with reasons that students struggle with learning English and mathematics at the same time An audio file of common mathematics terms translated from English into most often spoken languages by ELLs can be accessed at www.youareamathperson.com Outstanding features Response to Intervention RTI model underpins discussions of differentiating instruction Mathematics content reflects components of the Common Core State Standards Initiative for Mathematics and the National Council of Teachers of Mathematics Principles and Standards for School Mathematics Case studies and student examples promote a sound understanding of learners varied cognitive behavioral and physical needs Discussion questions challenge readers to think more deeply about the application and utility of concepts related to the error patterns Step by step directions for interactive instructional classroom games and activities are provided to extend and enrich teaching and learning

Reading for Action Ashley S. Boyd, Janine J. Darragh, 2019-06-05 This book illustrates how teachers can draw upon young adult literature to facilitate students social action Each chapter centers on one novel that represents a contemporary topic including police brutality women s rights ecojustice and bullying In each authors provide pre during and after reading strategies for teaching that connect the social issues in the texts to students lives and to the world around them They then offer a multitude of avenues for student action emphasizing the need to move readers from understanding and awareness to asserting their own agency and capacities to effect change in their local national and global communities In addition to methods for scaffolding students analysis of texts and topics authors also offer a plethora of additional resources such as documentaries canonical companions for study connected music and supplementary lesson plans

Shaping Students of Color from Preschool to Graduate School Nathan Durdella, 2025-09-01 Illuminates how family student interactions enhance the educational achievement of students of color first generation academics and applies these lessons to institutional goals Shaping Students of Color from Preschool to Graduate School argues that family socialization and parent involvement in education influence paths to graduate school Based on personal interviews with over thirty graduate students of color and first generation graduate students the text

shows that families and parents use a complex system where cultural knowledge and behavioral modeling socialize children over the life course to promote specific values including prioritizing education and hard work building family unity and spirituality honoring familial and ancestral sacrifices fostering individual agency and personal autonomy at a young age resisting gendered and racialized norms and managing relationships in both personal and professional settings These stories lay the groundwork for developing an asset based understanding of what graduate students of color and first generation graduate students bring to campus Institutionally what we learn can continue to build on the unique experiences and strengths of graduate students and enhance connections between personal and familial backgrounds and inclusive educational programming
