Agroecology V. Ernesto Méndez, Christopher M. Bacon, Roseann Cohen, Stephen R. Gliessman, 2015-11-18 Agroecology A Transdisciplinary Participatory and Action oriented Approach is the first book to focus on agroecology as a transdisciplinary participatory and action oriented process Using a combined theoretical and practical approach this collection of work from pioneers in the subject along with the latest generation of acknowledged leaders Achieving the Sustainable Development Goals Simon Dalby, Susan Horton, Rianne Mahon, Diana Thomaz, 2019-04-11 This book draws on the expertise of faculty and colleagues at the Balsillie School of International Affairs to both locate the Sustainable Development Goals SDGs as a contribution to the development of global government and to examine the political institutional and financial challenges posed by the SDGs The contributors are experts in global governance issues in a broad variety of fields ranging from health food systems social policy migration and climate change An introductory chapter sets out the broad context of the governance challenges involved and how individual chapters contribute to the analysis The book begins by focusing on individual SDGs examining briefly the background to the particular goal and evaluating the opportunities and challenges particularly governance challenges in achieving the goal as well as discussing how this goal relates to other SDGs The book goes on to address the broader issues of achieving the set of goals overall examining the novel financing mechanisms required for an enterprise of this nature the trade offs involved particularly between the urgent climate agenda and the social economic goals the institutional arrangements designed to enable the achievement of the goals and offering a critical perspective on the enterprise as a whole Achieving the Sustainable Development Goals makes a distinctive contribution by covering a broad range of individual goals with contributions from experts on governance in the global climate social and economic areas as well as providing assessments of the overall project its financial feasibility institutional requisites and its failures to tackle certain problems at the core This book will be of great interest to scholars and students of international affairs development studies and sustainable development as well as those engaged in policymaking nationally internationally and those working in NGOs Doing Environmental Ethics Robert Traer, 2009-02-10 Doing Environmental Ethics is a brief accessible applied ethics book offering an inclusive and practical way for an individual to personally address the world s ecological crisis Author Robert Traer builds on a commonsense understanding of doing what is right and being a good person and suggests how with a deeper sense of self and one s place in nature we can begin to change our carbon footprint To consider and understand public policies and personal environmental practices Traer draws on secular and religious perspectives as well as Eastern and Western traditions Doing Environmental Ethics devotes central attention to considerations of duty to other people species and ecosystems character personal traits and virtues relationships to people and the natural environment and rights of people to participate in land use decisions that affect them Discussion questions at the end of each chapter help readers clarify their reasoning and create action plans for change Doing Environmental Ethics demonstrates how valuable defining one's own philosophy about the environment is to living with greater ecological awareness and sense of personal responsibility Jacket

Routledge Handbook of Religion and Ecology Willis J. Jenkins, Mary Evelyn Tucker, John Grim, 2016-07-22 The moral values and interpretive systems of religions are crucially involved in how people imagine the challenges of sustainability and how societies mobilize to enhance ecosystem resilience and human well-being The Routledge Handbook of Religion and Ecology provides the most comprehensive and authoritative overview of the field It encourages both appreciative and critical angles regarding religious traditions communities attitude and practices It presents contrasting ways of thinking about religion and about ecology and about ways of connecting the two terms Written by a team of leading international experts the Handbook discusses dynamics of change within religious traditions as well as their roles in responding to global challenges such as climate change water conservation food and population It explores the interpretations of indigenous traditions regarding modern environmental problems drawing on such concepts as lifeway and indigenous knowledge This volume uniquely intersects the field of religion and ecology with new directions within the humanities and the sciences This interdisciplinary volume is an essential reference for scholars and students across the social sciences and humanities and for all those looking to understand the significance of religion in environmental studies and policy

Voice and Participation in Global Food Politics Alana Mann, 2019-04-05 As awareness of the commodification of food for profit at the expense of our health and the planet grows this book foregrounds the communicative dimensions of resistance by food movements Voice and participation are argued by the author to be the means through which rural and urban communities can and in many cases do resist the capture of value by corporate actors and work to democratise their foodscapes Her critical analysis of meaning making under neo liberalism suggests that agroecology as a socially activating form of agriculture within a food sovereignty framework provides an example of social learning relevant across rural urban and North South divides Embracing indigenous knowledge gender equity and postcolonial theory this approach mobilises growers and eaters to contest the power structures that shape their food environments and also to focus on social and economic justice within their communities particularly in the context of climate change Participatory ecologies that incorporate these forms of social learning encourage the co creation of inclusive foodscapes and politicise food justice Such a positive framing of resistance through horizontal pedagogy participation communication and social learning processes contrasts with the vertical dissemination structure of the corporatised food regime and takes vital steps towards a more democratic food system Voice and Participation in Global Food Politics will be of interest to scholars of agri food transdisciplinary food studies and political economy of food systems It will also be of relevance to NGOs and policymakers

Introduction to Cultural Ecology Mark Q. Sutton,E. N. Anderson,2013-12-12 All peoples and cultures face environmental issues but as this accessible text shows how they respond to such issues varies widely around the world and across human history Introduction to Cultural Ecology Third Edition familiarizes students with the foundations of the field and provides a framework for exploring what other cultures can teach us about human environment relationships Drawing on both biological and cultural approaches the authors first cover basic principles of cultural anthropology environmental studies and human biological adaptations to the environment They then consider environmental concerns within the context of diverse means of making a living from hunting and gathering to modern industrial societies detailed case studies add depth and breadth to the discussion What Is Agriculture For? Paul B. Thompson,Professor Emeritus Department of Philosophy Paul B Thompson,2025-08-15 The leading idea for this book were developed through lectures including The Harold Stoner Lectures at California Lutheran University and the Tarim ve Gida Etigi Kongresi Uluslarasi Katilimli at the University of Ankara both in 2017 as well as the 2018 Parliament of World Religions I would like to thank my audiences at these events most especially for the encouragement I received I also presented papers summarizing aspects of the research at the European Society for Agriculture and Food Ethics the Society for Philosophy and Technology and Asia Pacific Society for Agriculture and Food Ethics A book chapter presenting the basic themes of Chapter 4 appeared in Contested Sustainability Discourses in the Agrifood System D Constance J Konefal and M Hatanaki Eds London 2018 Earthscan pp 42 58 The section How Philosophers Approach Ethics from the Introduction is a lightly edited reprint of a similar section in Paul B Thompson From Field to Fork Food Ethics for Everyone New York 2015 Oxford University Press Provided by publisher

Religion Around Bono Chad E. Seales,2019-10-24 For many U2 s Bono is an icon of both evangelical spirituality and secular moral activism In this book Chad E Seales examines the religious and spiritual culture that has built up around the rock star over the course of his career and considers how Bono engages with that religion in his music and in his activism Looking at Bono and his work within a wider critique of white American evangelicalism Seales traces Bono s career from his background in religious groups in the 1970s to his rise to stardom in the 1980s and his relationship with political and economic figures such as Jeffrey Sachs Bill Clinton and Jesse Helms In doing so Seales shows us a different Bono one who uses the spiritual meaning of church tradition to advocate for the promise that free markets and for profits will bring justice and freedom to the world's poor Engaging with scholarship in popular culture music religious studies race and economic development Seales makes the compelling case that neoliberal capitalism is a religion and that Bono is its best known celebrity revivalist Engagingly written and bitingly critical Religion Around Bono promises to transform our understanding of the rock star's career and advocacy Those interested in the intersection of rock music religion and activism will find Seales's study provocative and enlightening Universities and the Sustainable Development Future Peter H. Koehn, Juha I. Uitto, 2017-04-07 This study provides institutions of higher learning around the world with new and inclusive guidelines that can be applied contextually to produce credible evidence regarding the outcome and impact of their teaching research societal outreach governance and partnering activities with regard to sustainable development The 2015 International Year of Evaluation is behind us and post 2015 Sustainable Development Goals are coming into play Donors the public international organizations and higher education participants need to know if universities are advancing sustainable development Although university involvement in sustainable development research teaching and outreach has increased substantially systematic learning from higher education engagements has been disappointing and the extent to which university initiatives have influenced sustainable development particularly in the Global South is widely contested This book presents and demonstrates the utility of a flexible framework that will inspire substantial contextually based improvements in the ways universities evaluate and therefore activate and improve their sustainable development undertakings It provides a cutting edge resource for students scholars university leaders and policy drivers at all levels of governance who are concerned with contemporary higher education sustainable development climate change and evaluation challenges Agricultural Commercialization, Gender Equality and the Right to Food Joanna Bourke Martignoni, Christophe Gironde, Christophe Golay, Elisabeth Prögl, Dzodzi Tsikata, 2022-09-22 This volume explores agricultural commercialization from a gender equality and right to food perspective Agricultural commercialization involving not only the shift to selling crops and buying inputs but also the commodification of land and labour has always been controversial Strategies for commercialization have often reinforced and exacerbated inequalities been blind to gender differences and given rise to violations of the human rights to food land work and social security While there is a body of evidence to trace these developments globally impacts vary considerably in local contexts This book systematically considers these dynamics in two countries Cambodia and Ghana Profoundly different in terms of their history and location they provide the basis for fruitful comparisons because they both transitioned to democracy in the early 1990s made agricultural development a priority and adopted orthodox policies of commercialization to develop the sector Chapters illustrate how commercialization processes are gendered highlighting distinctive gender ethnic and class dynamics in rural Ghana and Cambodia and the different outcomes these generate They also show the ways in which food cultures are changing and the often problematic impact of these changes on the safety and quality of food Specific policies and legal norms are examined with chapters addressing the development and implementation of frameworks on the right to food and land administration Overall the volume brings into relief multiple dimensions shaping the outcomes of processes of commercialization including gender orders food cultures policy translation national and sub national policies corporate investments and programmes and formal and informal legal norms In doing so it offers insight not only on our case countries but also provides proposals to advance rights based research on food security This book will be of great interest to students and scholars of food security agricultural development and economics gender human rights and sustainable development
