If you meet George Herbert on the road, kill him Justin Lewis-Anthony, 2013-01-17 Priestly ministry in the Church of England needs a radical rethink George Herbert died in 1633 His legacy continues His poems are read and sung and his parish ministry remains the model for the Church of England's understanding of how and where and why its priests should minister But there is a problem The memory of Herbert celebrated by the Church is an inaccurate one and in its inaccuracy is unfair on Herbert himself and his successors in the ordained ministry This is a book of the long view It sets out to assess realistically the context of Herbert's life and to explore the difficulties of parish life today By examining the status and role of parish clergy since Herbert's time and today it draws on the work of historians social anthropologists psychologists and theologians and presents their ideas in a readable and passionate style It argues that the future strength of parochial ministry will be found in a recovery of historic renewed understandings of priestly ministry and concludes by outlining more sustainable patterns of practice for the future In a climate of uncertainty for the future of the church it will be an encouragement for priest and people and welcomed by both If You Meet the Buddha on the Road, Kill Him Sheldon Kopp, 2013-05-22 A fresh realistic approach to altering one's destiny and accepting the responsibility that grows with freedom No meaning that comes from outside of ourselves is real The Buddhahood of each of us has already been obtained We only need to recognize it The most important things that each man must learn no one can teach him Once he accepts this disappointment he will be able to stop depending on the therapist the guru who turns out to be just another struggling human being Using the myth of Gilgamesh Siddhartha The Wife of Bath Don Quixote the works of Buber Ginsberg Shakespeare Kafka Nin Dante and Jung a brilliant psychotherapist guru and pilgrim shares the epic tales and intimate revelations that help to shape Everyman's journey through life Amphibian and Reptile Road Ecology Cheryl S. The Paradox of Authenticity in a Globalized World R. Cobb, 2014-04-02 Authenticity in our globalized world is a paradox. This collection examines how authenticity relates to cultural products looking closely at how a particular ethnic food or genre of popular music or indigenous religious belief attains its aura of originality when all traditional cultural products are invented in a certain time and place.

Amglish In, Like, Ten Easy Lessons Arthur E. Rowse, 2011-10-16 One of the world's leading linguists recently wrote "We may be seeing the birth of a new language as yet without a name." He was referencing the new informal mixture of English and other languages being freely formed around the world with little effort to conform to prescribed rules of grammar, syntax, or spelling.

Amglish in Like Ten Easy Lessons: A Celebration of the New World Lingo by Arthur Rowse with illustrations by John Doherty offers both a name for this new language and an enjoyable guide on how one can learn to use the language through ten easy lessons. The authors describe how Amglish or American English influenced by online grammar and syntax has begun to dominate our global language. Featuring an ironic manual on how to use this developing language, Amglish is a light and highly entertaining addition to the recent literature on grammar and punctuation. Illustrated with original drawings throughout, the book shows readers how to improve their Amglish and have fun doing so.

The International Road Kill Cookbook B. R. Peterson, 1994 This book proves that cuisine de asphalt knows no boundaries. Australia, New Zealand, and Great Britain have tasty items unique and available to those who have this trusty guide in hand, ready for use.

Artistic License Darren Hudson Hick, 2017-04-26 The art scene today is one of appropriation of remixing, reusing, and recombining the works of other artists. From the musical mash-ups of Girl Talk to the pop culture borrowings of Damien Hirst and Jeff Koons, it's clear that the artistic landscape is shifting, which leads to some tricky legal and philosophical questions. In this up-to-date, thorough, and accessible analysis of the right to copyright, Darren Hudson Hick works to reconcile the growing practice of artistic appropriation with innovative views of artists' rights, both legal and moral. Engaging with long-standing debates about the nature of originality, authorship, and artists' rights, Hick examines the philosophical challenges presented by the role of intellectual property in the artworld and vice versa. Using real-life examples of artists who have incorporated copyrighted works into their art, he explores issues of artistic creation and the nature of infringement as they are informed by analytical aesthetics and legal and critical theory. Ultimately, Artistic License provides a critical and systematic analysis of the key philosophical issues that underlie copyright policy, rethinking the relationship between artist, artwork, and the law.

Displaying Death and Animating Life Jane C. Desmond, 2016-08-18 The number of ways in which humans interact with animals is almost incalculable. From beloved household pets to the steak on our dinner tables, the fur in our closets to the Babar books on our shelves, taxidermy exhibits to local zoos, humans have complex, deep, and dependent relationships with the animals in our ecosystems. In Displaying Death and Animating Life, Jane C. Desmond puts those human-animal relationships under a multidisciplinary lens, focusing on the less obvious and revealing the individualities and subjectivities of the real animals in our everyday lives.

Desmond a pioneer in the field of animal studies builds the book on a number of case studies She conducts research on site at major museums taxidermy conventions pet cemeteries and even at a professional conference for writers of obituaries She goes behind the scenes at zoos wildlife clinics and meetings of pet cemetery professionals We journey with her as she meets Kanzi the bonobo artist and a host of other animal artists all of whom are preparing their artwork for auction Throughout Desmond moves from a consideration of the visual display of unindividuated animals to mourning for known animals and finally to the marketing of artwork by individual animals The first book in the new Animal Lives series Displaying Death and Animating Life is a landmark study bridging disciplines and reaching across divisions from the humanities and social sciences to chart new territories of investigation
