

Timeline - A Slow March to War

Anti-Communist Pact	Japan Invades China	Abschuss with Austria	Munich Agreement	Hitler Ignores Munich Agreement	Non-Aggression Pact	Poland Hitler invades Poland, war is declared
Germany and Japan signed the Anti-Communist Pact directed against communist states, particularly the Soviet Union. • 22 years prior, Japan invades Manchuria in northern China, signing a desire to expand their empire.	Japan invades the rest of China, setting off the war in the Pacific, which would eventually become the pretext for the United States to enter the war.	Hitler announced the Abschuss with Austria. • Austria had large German speaking population. • Hitler himself was an Austrian.	Germany, Italy, Great Britain, and France signed the Munich agreement which forced the Czechoslovak Republic to hand over the Sudetenland, involving very little military effort, and financial payments to Nazi Germany, to appease Hitler.	Hitler ignored the Munich agreement and used Reichswehr as a threat to invade the rest of Czechoslovakia and France, publicly announcing that he would guarantee the security of the Polish border.	Hitler and Stalin signed a secret non-aggression pact, agreeing to divide Europe into spheres of influence.	Hitler invaded Poland from the west, to reclaim the Danzig corridor. France and England responded by declaring war on Germany, and by the end of the month, the Soviet Union invaded from the east, splitting Poland in two.
