Nothing To Fear English Edition:

Three Sons Daniel L. Medin, 2010-01-11 Franz Kafka was a self conscious writer whose texts were highly if mysteriously autobiographical Three giants of contemporary fiction J M Coetzee Philip Roth and W G Sebald have all acknowledged their debt to the work of Kafka both in interviews and in their own academic essays and articles for a general readership about him In this striking feat of literary scholarship Daniel Medin finds that the use of Kafka by Coetzee Roth and Sebald is similarly self reflexive and autobiographical That writers from such divergent national and ethnic traditions can have such unique critical readings of Kafka and that Kafka could exert such a powerful influence over their oeuvres Medin contends attests to the central place of Kafka in the contemporary literary imagination Catalog of Copyright Entries Library of Congress. and critical theory struggle with the same contemporary forces from ecological peril to psycho social violence and they both offer radically negative critiques of the present as well as utopian postures toward the future Like other books in the innovative TRIOS series this one offers readers ambitious essays produced through long standing conversation among three challenging thinkers The first essay by Marcus Boon explores the politics of sunyata or emptiness as they emerged from 1936 to 1976 in the wake moments of political crisis for both Buddhism and Marxism Boon illuminates the role of Buddhism in the work of the French philosopher Georges Bataille the Buddhist politics of the Tibetan writer Gendun Chopel and the Buddhist anarchism of Gary Snyder Eric Cazdyn s essay reveals a shared function between the Buddhist category of enlightenment the Marxist category of revolution and the psychoanalytic category of cure The third essay in this trio by Timothy Morton explores a phenomenon he calls Buddhaphobia a fear of Buddhism he attributes to modernity s anxieties about nothingness Morton argues that critical theory can speak to our dark ecological future only if it attends to current forms of economic and social nihilism and challenge in which Buddhism can serve critical theory as an ally
