 Andrea Honigsfeld, Maria G. Dove, 2012-05-01 Much has been written about the cognitive and academic language needs of those learning English as a new language be it a second language in the United States or other English speaking countries or as a foreign language in all other parts of the world Many guidebooks and professional development materials have been produced on teacher collaboration and co teaching for special education inclusive classrooms Similarly much has been published about effective strategies teachers can use to offer more culturally and linguistically responsive instruction to their language learners However only a few resources are available to help general education teachers and ESL English as a second language specialists or two English as a foreign language EFL teachers such as native and nonnative English speaking teachers to collaborate effectively With this volume our goal is to offer an accessible resource long awaited by educators whose individual instructional practice and or institutional paradigm shifted to a more collaborative approach to language education Through this collection of chapters we closely examine ESL EFL co teaching and other collaborative practices by a exploring the rationale for teacher collaboration to support ESL EFL instruction b presenting current classroom based practitioner oriented research studies and documentary accounts related to co teaching co planning co assessing curriculum alignment teacher professional development and additional collaborative practices and c offering authentic teacher reflections and recommendations on collaboration and co teaching These three major themes are woven together throughout the entire volume designed as a reference to both novice and experienced teachers in their endeavors to provide effective integrated collaborative instruction for EFL or ESL learners We also intend to help preservice and inservice ESL EFL teachers teacher educators professional developers ESL EFL program directors and administrators to find answers to critical
