Crease, 2022-10-25 How the discovery of a harmless leak of radiation sparked a media firestorm political grandstanding and fearmongering that closed a vital scientific facility In 1997 scientists at Brookhaven National Laboratory found a small leak of radioactive water near their research reactor Brookhaven was and is a world class Nobel Prize winning lab and its reactor was the cornerstone of US materials science and one of the world's finest research facilities The leak harmless to health came from a storage pool rather than the reactor But its discovery triggered a media and political firestorm that resulted in the reactor's shutdown and even attempts to close the entire laboratory A quarter century later the episode reveals the dynamics of today's controversies in which fears and the dismissal of science disrupt serious discussion and research of vital issues such as vaccines climate change and toxic chemicals This story has all the elements of a thriller with vivid characters and dramatic twists and turns Key players include congressmen and scientists journalists and university presidents actors supermodels and anti nuclear activists all interacting and teaming up in surprising ways The authors each with insider knowledge of and access to confidential documents and the key players reveal how a fact of no health significance could be portrayed as a Chernobyl like disaster This compelling expos reveals the gaps between scientists politicians media and the public that have only gotten more dangerous since 1997 Peter Bond is a retired physicist who worked at Brookhaven National Laboratory for 43 years in a wide variety of roles including interim laboratory director during much of the period covered by this book American Agency Bulletin, 1910 Resources in Education, 1997 The Northwestern Miller, 1905 Selected Water Resources Abstracts, 1987 New York State Journal of Medicine, 1931 Developing

Learning Communities Through Teacher Expertise Giselle O. Martin-Kniep, 2003-10-14 No book I have read in the past ten years has made clearer to me the difference between what I am doing as a professional developer and what I should be doing. It is so unrelentingly honest about the difficulty of our work and yet so rich in practical examples that I cannot help but feel inspired to move forward and change the way I teach and learn with teachers. Richard W. Strong, Vice President, Silver Strong, however, this book is concise, provides excellent templates, and is backed by real experiences and expertise. Suzanne C. Fonoti, Principal, Flagstaff, Arizona Unified School District. Forget expensive consultants; use the expertise within your own school for quality professional development. Martin Kniep offers practical methods for developing a reflective collaborative environment where teachers and administrators work together to enhance teachers' practices, increase student learning, and produce valuable school processes. Developing Learning Communities Through Teacher Expertise includes frameworks, templates, and examples that can be employed to determine the value and implications surrounding the use of teacher-designed standards-based curriculum and assessment, data-driven inquiry, and professional portfolios. Based on work completed at the nonprofit Center for the Study of Expertise in Teaching and Learning, this innovative volume includes examples of teachers' reflections, portfolio artifacts, and student work. Sample standards-based curriculum units for different content areas and grade levels, discussion questions, and recommended readings. Sample worksheets and self-assessments. Standards-based curriculum and assessment design tools. Sample rubrics for student and teacher development. Developing Learning Communities Through Teacher Expertise offers step-by-step instructions for developing an action plan for incorporating learning communities into a school. Providing numerous real-life examples, Martin Kniep includes three specific teaching units and supporting material which illustrate how to identify and capitalize on teachers' existing expertise.
