The EU-Japan Partnership in the Shadow of China Axel Berkofsky, Christopher W.

Hughes, Paul Midford, Marie Söderberg, 2018-06-27 Both the European Union and Japan have been major beneficiaries and supporters of the liberal international order first led by the United States since the end of World War II During this period they have emerged as global powers however the very order that nurtured their rise is now facing twin threats First through authoritarian China's promotion of alternative models of global governance and second from a crisis of liberalism manifested in the policies of President Donald Trump and Brexit This book explores these challenges faced by both the EU and Japan providing a multidisciplinary approach to studying the relationship between the two It analyses their cooperation in terms of security defence and trade and examines how their shared normative values are ultimately implemented Having recently concluded an Economic Partnership Agreement and with a Strategic Partnership Agreement in the pipeline this book asks whether they can convert their latent and modest cooperation into an alternative form of leadership and an antidote to the illiberal tide sweeping the developed world As the first book to shed light on the new Economic Partnership Agreement between the EU and Japan this book will be useful to students and scholars of Japanese Studies as well as European Union politics and international political economy more generally
