

Opening Statement

This is a regular open meeting of LifeRing Secular Recovery. LifeRing is a self-help support group for all people who want to get and stay clean and sober.

We feel that in order to remain in recovery, we have to make sobriety the top priority in our lives. By sobriety, we mean complete abstinence from alcohol and other addictive drugs.

Out of respect for people of all faiths and none, we conduct our meetings in a secular way, which means that, during this hour, we do not use prayer or talk about religion. We rely in our recovery on our own efforts and on the help of the group members and other friends.

Everything that we share at this meeting is completely confidential and stays in this room. If you are under the influence of alcohol or drugs now, we ask that you maintain silence at this meeting. You may speak with members afterward.

The meeting format is flexible. We generally begin by checking in and talking about the highlights and heartaches of our past week in recovery, and what we plan to do to stay clean and sober in the coming week.

We encourage cross-talk throughout the meeting. By cross-talk we mean questions and positive, supportive feedback. Positive experiences from your own recovery are welcome. Please allow enough time for everyone to participate by limiting your speaking time if necessary.

If this is your first time at this meeting of LifeRing -- Welcome. Please introduce yourself by your first name. If you would like, tell us how long you have been in recovery and then tell us about your past week and your coming week in recovery. If you would like to know more about the LifeRing approach, we have LifeRing books and handouts available here.

Thank you.

Use Your Head to Get Your Foot in the Door Harvey Mackay, 2011-01-04 Harvey Mackay hits the bull's eye. An important book for important times in our lives. The Shark Man at his very best. Larry King Harvey Mackay returns with the ultimate book on how to get and keep a job you truly love whether you're twenty one, fifty one or seventy one. In this era of downsizing and outsourcing you can never be sure your job will still exist in five years or five weeks. So you'd better think of your career as a perpetual job search. That demands a passion for lifetime learning and the skills for relentless and effective networking. Uplifting, amusing and jam-packed with proven tips, Use Your Head to Get Your Foot in the Door will guide you through the toughest job market in decades. It's also the definitive A to Z career resource for the rest of your life. Resumes For Dummies Joyce Lain Kennedy, 2007-02-26 Is your job search stalling out after you submit a resume but before you're offered an interview? With reinvented recruiting technology, unmanageable millions of resumes choking employer databases and government mandates in the name of diversity, a gigantic change has occurred in the recruiting world over the past several years and it demands a fresh look at how you write and market your resumes. Whether you're entering the job market for the first time, changing jobs or changing careers, Resumes for Dummies 5th Edition will show you the ropes and rules for a new era in recruiting and job finding. With 85% new content added since the previous edition, this up-to-date guide gives you the very latest strategies on how to create and more importantly, distribute your resume in today's new job search environment. You'll learn: Why most generic online resumes fail. How to customize resumes for each job opening. New quick ways to find the right jobs. How to use meta search engines to your advantage. Why both digital and print versions of resumes are still needed. How to use resumes interactively. The resume basics that still knock 'em dead. How to create resumes for your life's changing phases. What to do after you send them your resume. With a wealth of sample resumes organized by industry and career field, experience level and age and special circumstances along with tips on choosing professional resume help and other valuable resources, Resumes for Dummies 5th Edition will help you get noticed in a universe saturated with billions of resumes and more on the way. How to Say It: Job Interviews Linda Matias JCTC, CIC, NCRW, 2007-08-07 A pocket-sized companion providing smart interviewing principles for every job seeker. How to Prepare for Medical School Interviews Philip McElnay, 2021-08-15. HIGHLY COMMENDED IN THE 2017 BMA BOOK AWARDS. Here's what the judges said: "The book is thorough and well-written. It has many good questions and challenging scenarios and will allow candidates to prepare thoroughly for their interview. This is a useful book with plenty of scenarios for medical school applicants to practise and prepare. I am not aware of any other books in this subject area that describe potential interview questions to such depth. The quality of the questions, as well as the answers, and the variety is satisfying to see. Competition ratios for medical school are approximately 10:1. Faced with the increasing numbers of well qualified applicants the medical school interview has become a vital part of the application process Put simply if you want to get into medical school you will need to do well in your medical school interview As well as the more traditional use of across the table interview questions many medical schools are now using Multiple Mini Interviews as a core part of their recruitment process How to Prepare for Medical School Interviews is the largest collection of both types of interview questions available It contains over 200 practice questions with full answers as well as detailed practical advice to help you approach your interviews with confidence Edited by an academic surgical registrar and with real life contributions from students from medical schools across the UK How to Prepare for Medical School Interviews is the perfect book to help you get ready for practise and succeed in your medical school interview The Training and Development Sourcebook Craig Eric Schneier,1994 Included are 50 of the most important articles written by leading practitioners in the training field Also includes over 50 fully reproducible training tools and instruments that will save you valuable time in new program development and delivery Broadcast Announcing Worktext Alan R.
