

Basic Five Paragraph Essay Format

Paragraph	Content
Introduction	Sentence 1	Hook - One sentence designed to grab your reader's attention (quote, question, thought-provoking statement, anecdote, interesting fact, etc.).
	Sentence 2-3	Background Information - Connect your general hook to your specific topic. What basic information should your reader know about your topic in order to understand your essay?
	Sentence 4-5	Thesis - One to two sentences identifying your topic, claim, and specific arguments you intend to make.
Body #1 through Body #3	Sentence 1	Topic Sentence : One sentence identifying what your paragraph is going to be about. This sentence should use transitions such as, first, second, third, last, also, additionally, etc.
	Sentence 2-6	Details : Use these sentences to prove your point using specific details from the text. The more specific you can make it, the better. Use quotes, page numbers or examples from text.
	Sentences 7-8	Paragraph Summary/Transition - Briefly wrap up your paragraph by putting your final thoughts on the topic at hand. Basically in your own words, what overall idea or statement do the details you supplied create? How might this topic lead into the next idea?
Conclusion	Sentence 1	Wrap-Up Statement : This is a one sentence overview of your topic. What is the overall point/argument/idea of your essay? You can use your original thesis to create this sentence.
	Sentence 2-3	Recap Specific Ideas : Use these sentences to summarize your main points from your body paragraphs. Never word your points the exact same way. Add variety by restating the ideas using new words. At no point should you introduce new ideas in your conclusion.
	Sentence 4-5	Lasting Impression - One to two sentences leaving your reader with a memorable idea, thought or call to action. It is clear from these sentences that your essay is done.

Narrative as Writing and Literacy Pedagogy for Preservice Elementary Teachers Nancy A. Wasser, 2021-08-16 I just cannot write or I am not a good writer are familiar complaints from students in academia Many of them claim they cannot express themselves clearly in written text and their lack of this skill impedes them in their academic career In this book Nancy A Wasser argues that teachers can help solve this when they start viewing writing not as secondary to reading but as the equally important side of the same coin Those who cannot read will not be able to write Wasser explains how teaching and regular practicing of writing skills from an early age onwards helps children grow into students who are self aware of their voices By employing narrative as a process of learning to write and a way to read teachers can teach children the art of writing while also making children more aware of their own constructions of narrative Combining the focus on individual and group expression in writing lessons students can trace and reflect on their own life transformations through their writing process Good writers are not born that way but made through effort and practice Changes in curriculum may not only lead to better expressed citizens but also to more balance between teacher and children voices Becoming a Teacher of Writing in Elementary Classrooms Donna Kalmbach Phillips, Mindy Legard Larson, 2015-12-22 Becoming a Teacher of Writing in Elementary Classrooms nurtures teachers identities as writers connects to the realities of writing instruction in real and diverse classrooms and encourages critical and creative thinking This text is about writing instruction as a journey teachers and students embark on together The focus is on learning how to teach writing through specific teaching and learning structures found in the Writing Studio mini lessons teacher and peer conferencing guided writing and sharing celebrating and broadcasting writing Pedagogical features include teaching structures and strategies Problematising Practice classroom scenarios assessment resources and a Companion Website Because a teacher who views him or herself as a writer is best positioned to implement the Writing Studio a parallel text Becoming a writer give readers space to consider who they are as a writer their personal process as a writer and who they might become as a writer Hydropower Efficiency, Grade 4 Carla C. Academic Writing Stuart Greene, April Lidinsky, 2011-07-06 Explains academic writing as a clear step by step process that one can use in any college course Research in Education ,1973 Quality Instruction and Intervention for Elementary Educators Brittany L. Hott, Pamela Williamson, 2024-10-02 Effective teaching starts with quality instruction that most students respond well to However about 35% of students will require specialized and more intensive instruction to meet academic and behavioral standards Both students with exceptionalities who are eligible to receive special education and related services and students who are placed at risk due to circumstance require deserve and are legally entitled to quality intervention Quality Instruction and Intervention for Elementary Educators offers an accessible resource for educators interested in evidence based strategies to ensure all students have access to an excellent education Two dedicated chapters authored by leading content and strategy experts in the field are devoted to content areas The first chapter focuses on quality instruction with academic subject matter specialists as lead authors with interventionists supporting The second chapter focuses on effective intervention with the interventionists taking the lead author roles and academic subject matter specialists supporting Between the two chapters is a dialogue between the teams of authors bridging instruction and intervention This unique approach bridges the gap between quality instruction and effective intervention an often overlooked component of teacher education The book also includes dedicated chapters on the integration of instructional technology and executive functioning After reading the book educators will be able to describe the components of effective instruction and intervention in each of the content areas access empirically validated materials and locate resources for continued learning

The Primary Curriculum Linda Hargreaves, Janet Moyles, 2002-09-11 This book is concerned with the relationships and tensions in education between children s needs and societies demands questions which primary teachers everywhere face on a daily basis such as how does society s view of children and childhood affect teaching and learning how do the dictates of the education system including a national curriculum shape teaching practice how do the conventions of classroom practice fit with teachers own beliefs and values The first part of the book offers a basic framework for thinking about primary curricula from the perspectives raised by these questions whilst the second part presents a range of international views on the primary curriculum from Australia New Zealand South East Asia Europe and the USA The Complete Idiot's Guide to the TOEFL® Elizabeth Rollins, 2013-08-06 Unlike other test prep books this guide covers both the paper based and the Internet based test With supplemental online podcasts as well as clear prose ample practice questions easily digested chapters and two full practice tests this Complete Idiot s Guide is an essential addition to any non English speaker preparing for admission at more than 8 500 colleges and universities in English speaking countries The Word Whiz's Greatest Hits, Elementary School Edition (Grade 1-5) Chris Kensler, 2001-12-25 Parents of elementary school children are shown how to help their children express their ideas more precisely and deepen their understanding of what they read hear and see This guide provides vocabulary exercises and activities frequently found on state tests Fun-Size Academic Writing for Serious Learning Gretchen Bernabei, Judi Reimer, 2013-07-31 Sometimes a student's best teacher is another student. Just as the pressure for students to perform well on state assessments escalates ever higher and the call to raise students' achievement in narrative opinion argument and informative explanatory writing grows louder, Gretchen Bernabei and Judi Reimer publish Fun Size Academic Writing for Serious Learning. If ever there were a book to answer every need, this is it. You see, Gretchen and Judi have been concerned about adolescents writing for years, and they have had amazing success using mentor texts by students to teach the ins and outs of writing in any genre. So with this book, they hand over their file drawers and provide you with 101 essays written by students, with one-page companion lessons that address text structure, imagery, dialogue, rhetorical devices, grammatical structures, textual blends, all the different tools that writers use. Organized into three major sections that align with the Common Core, STAAR, and other major state assessments, Fun Size Academic Writing delivers succinct, powerhouse instruction on topics such as: How to choose a structure for argument, informational, or narrative writing; How to read a piece and extract thesis statement and main points; How to layer a wide range of details to support points; How to use rhetorical devices and grammatical constructions for effect; How to write from the point of view of a fictional character. The essays, also available in reproducible form on the companion website, demonstrate something striking, something imitable, something concrete. They give students a bank of choices to call upon as they write. The lessons are short, practical, and full of variety. Collectively, these essays and lessons have the potential to move the needle on American students' writing achievement, once and for all. They show what has been done by students, and they reveal to you how your own students can do it too. Grade Teacher, 1929

From Inquiry to Academic Writing: A Text and Reader Stuart Greene, April Lidinsky, 2011-09-02 Academic writing is a conversation, a collaborative exchange of ideas to pursue new knowledge. From Inquiry to Academic Writing: A Text and Reader demystifies cross-curricular thinking and writing by breaking it down into a series of comprehensible habits and skills that students can learn in order to join in. The extensive thematic reader opens up thought-provoking conversations being held throughout the academy and in the culture at large. Read the preface. Developing Multilingual Writing Hiroe Kobayashi, Carol Rinnert, 2023-02-14 With millions of people becoming multilingual writers in the globalized digital world, this book helps to empower writers to connect with their readers and project their identities effectively across languages, social contexts, and genres. In a series of closely related studies that build on each other, we look comprehensively at how writers develop their ability to construct meaning for different audiences in multiple languages. This book, which draws on various approaches including a social view of writing, multicompetence, adaptive transfer, complex systems theory, motivation, and translanguaging, contributes to ongoing efforts to integrate differing approaches to multilingual writing research. This book focusses on how writer agency, control over text construction, audience awareness, ability to meet expectations of prospective readers, and writer identity projection of image of the writer in the text progress as multilingual writers gain more experience across languages. The within-writer cross sectional text analysis Chapters 2-5 examines 185 essays written in Japanese and English by eight groups of writers from novice to advanced N 103 supplemented by insights from these writers' reflections We explore how they employ three kinds of text features discourse types metadiscourse and self representation which relate to their developing agency audience and writer identity in their text construction and propose a new model for writer voice construction based on those features The four case studies Chapters 6-9 focus on five university students and six professionals to examine closely how individual writers agency audience and identity are interrelated in their text construction in two or three languages and diverse genres including academic and creative writing The combined studies provide new insights into multilingual writing development by revealing the close interrelationship among these three principal aspects of writing across languages They also demonstrate the writers' multi-directional use of dynamic transfer reuse and reshaping for L1 L2 and L3 text construction and the use of mixed languages L1 L2 or L1 L3 translanguageing for composing processes in addition to the creative power of multilingual writers One significant contribution of this book is to provide models of innovative ways to analyze text and new directions for writing research that go beyond complexity accuracy and fluency Categories and detailed examples of text features used for writer voice construction e.g. specific characteristics of Personal Emergent and Mature Voice are helpful for writing teachers and for developing writers to improve ways of conveying their own intended writer identity to the reader The studies break new ground by extending our analysis of L2 writing to the same writers' L1 and L3 writing and multiple genres
