A Perfect Injustice Hrayr S. Karagueuzian,Yair

Auron,2011-12-31 Except for a short period after the end of the First World War and the ensuing armistice Turkey has consistently denied that it ever employed a policy of intentional destruction of Armenians Th e 1913 1914 census put the number of Armenians living in Turkey at close to two million Today only a few thousand Armenians remain in the city Istanbul and none elsewhere in Turkey Armenian sites in Turkey including churches have been neglected desecrated looted destroyed or requisitioned for other uses while Armenian place names have been erased or changed As with the Jewish Holocaust Armenian properties that were seized or stolen have not been restored Sixty and ninety years after these terrible events Jewish and Armenian victims and their heirs continue to struggle to get their properties back Th ere has been only partial restitution in the Jewish case and virtually no restitution at all in the Armenian case No adequate reparation for the deeds committed against the Armenians can ever be made But resolving claims with respect to stolen property is a symbolic gesture toward victims and their heirs Th is is unfinished business for Jewish heirs and survivor of the Holocaust as it is for Armenians A Perfect Injustice is an essential contribution to understanding why the issue of stolen Armenian wealth remains unresolved after all these years a topic addressed for the fi rst time in this volume Opinions of the Attorney General of
