The Integrated Adult Practice Class is based on the principle that learning is best achieved through authentic experience. Although authentic experiences and good instruction are essential and embedded in the learning process, they are not sufficient. The student is responsible for developing and experiencing with these materials in their own way, through self-paced learning and understanding of the learning process by completing the Integrated Adult Practice Class. The learning objectives of the Integrated Adult Practice Class are:

- 10 The study was conducted through observations, surveys and youth dialogues, focused on
- 11 youth planning, youth leadership and training that resulted in a report.
- 12 The study focuses on strategies for strengthening youth participation in decision making that
- 13 the teenagers studied, including leadership training and applying youth knowledge
- 14 The teenagers have, which support them in building leadership
- 15 The research was youth oriented, complemented by reports that address a specific and
- 16 the interests of the youth sector.
