

Letter To Graduating Senior

Subject- Letter to graduating seniors.

Dear [Mention the name of the recipient],

Wow. You're receiving your diploma! It seems significant, doesn't it? Anticlimactic, too. It is thrilling. Bittersweet, but also. It feels upbeat but has also at times, seemed depressing. You are formally unprecedented and life goes on graduating class.

We rejoice over you. We share your sorrow. With you, we eagerly anticipate the future. We fear for you. We are aware of your absence. Although you might not yet be aware of it, we also know that you have won something priceless.

We want you to know that this year has the potential to be both. Hard and fantastic. Stunning and disappointing. Life is never just one thing, it is a sacred amalgam of the lovely and the tragic. It's the definitive guide to living, and yours just so happened to include a pandemic on a worldwide scale! How will it now assist you?

Given that you were a baby just a short while ago, it's difficult for us to comprehend that you have graduated. Afterward, a kindergartener. And a student in middle school. Likewise, freshmen. You were achieving milestones that were within our reach, such as your first words, steps, friendships, failures, and successes. And all of a sudden, you're stretching farther than we can catch you. We are the spectators watching you perform on the trapeze as you fly through the air.

So, congrats on your graduation! It's been a remarkable year. But this year has been yours. Take it now and fly.

 Wiederman, 2000-03-01 Should I go to graduate school How do I choose where to apply Are my grades and accomplishments good enough to get in Who should I ask to write recommendation letters for me and how should I approach these people How do I write my personal statement When will I hear my fate and how should I make my final decision These are just a few of the many questions to which this well researched thorough and extremely user friendly book offers answers Students who are contemplating graduate training in psychology counseling and related fields are often apprehensive and confused about applying to graduate school but this book takes the guesswork and anxiety out of the process The tone and features such as the Q A format timeline for application related tasks and activities and special advice for special populations that made the first edition so successful eliciting hundreds of thank you notes and e mail messages to the author are just as evident in this new edition The book has been thoroughly updated to include coverage of new topics such as use of the internet and e mail as well as changing trends in the professions The most obvious difference is that the book is now significantly shorter as a result of meticulous rewriting making it even easier to use There have been attempts since the publication of the first edition to copy the format of this book but none of the others have successfully duplicated the depth of research based advice and the supportive style that make this book the guide of choice for thousands of graduate school bound students and their advisors Regulations, Courses of Study and Examinations of the Normal Schools of Ontario ... Ontario. Dept. of
