

$$\text{Ratio} = \frac{\text{Number of teachers}}{\text{Number of learners}} = \frac{40}{160}$$

This fraction can be simplified by dividing both the numerator and the denominator by 40:

$$\frac{40}{160} = \frac{1}{4}$$

Fostering Innovation for Agriculture 4.0 Miguel Angel Rapela,2019-10-31 The scientific and technical development of any kind of germplasm is regulated by a vast network of treaties conventions international agreements and national and regional legislation These regulations govern biotechnological innovations in plants and microorganisms access to and use of plant genetic resources and biosafety This complex mix has made it difficult to arrive at global interpretations due to overlaps gaps ambiguities contradictions and lack of consistency The big picture is even more complex as a series of scientific developments gene editing in particular have in some cases rendered these international regulatory frameworks obsolete This book puts forward an innovative approach a Comprehensive Plant Germplasm System The System is a cooperative game theory based proposal for a binding international convention which would supersede all other conventions treaties national and regional legislation covering native varieties and traditional developments heterogeneous plant varieties microorganisms biotechnological inventions plant genetic resources and biosafety regulation In short it offers a comprehensive framework regarding intellectual property biosafety and business regulation and covers all types of germplasm If applied the system is expected to yield higher productivity rates in crops and improved food biodiversity as well as a new paradigm based on the promotion of innovation for Agriculture 4.0 African Realism? Errol A. Henderson, 2015-03-19 African Realism explains Africa's international conflicts of the post colonial era through international relations theory. It looks at the relationship between Africa's domestic and international conflicts as well as the impact of factors such as domestic legitimacy, trade and regional economic institutions on African wars. Further, it examines the relevance of traditional realist assumptions, e.g. balance of power, the security dilemma, to African international wars and how these factors are modified by the exigencies of Africa's domestic institutions such as neopatrimonialism and inverted legitimacy. This study also addresses the inconsistencies and inaccuracies of international relations theory as it engages African international relations and especially its military history.

Transformation of Higher Education Institutions in Post-Apartheid South Africa Chaunda L. Scott, Eunice N. Ivala, 2019-02-21 This book outlines successful transformation strategies and efforts that have been developed to assist the South African higher education system in moving beyond its post apartheid state of being. Through case studies authored by South African higher education scholars and scholars affiliated with South African institutions, this book aims to highlight the status of transformation in the South African higher education system, demonstrate the variety of transformation initiatives used in academic institutions across South Africa, and offer recommendations to further advance this transformation. Written for scholars and advanced students of higher education in international settings, this volume aims to support quality research that benefits the demographic composition of South African academics and students and offers lessons that can inform higher education transformation in similarly multicultural societies.

The Global Student Experience Camille Kandiko, Mark Weyers, 2013-03-18 There are 100 million students in higher education throughout the world today.
