Answer: D. serving

In an effort to challenge an illegal use adoption notice issued by the zoning official, the owner of an adult-use business brings a case of an up-to-date zoning map into the zoning office to show that he is in a legal zone. Planning Department Board rules on this claim, who is right?

- A. The business owner because the zoning map clearly shows the use is permitted in the zoning district.
  - B. The zoning department because an adult-use business is not permitted in any zone without a conditional-use permit.
  - C. There is not enough information provided to determine who is right.
  - D. Neither is correct because only the Board of Adjustment can make a determination as to the legitimacy of the use.
- Answer: B. The zoning department because an adult-use business is not permitted in any zone without a conditional-use permit.

A homeowner is upset after having his permit application rejected because the proposed pool addition is the size of his house, does not meet new pool-safety requirements. The permit administrator may need to explain to the homeowner the general purpose of zoning for the
