as a model of embodied evangelism These theories are the social women mission theory postcolonial feminist mission theory martyrdom theology the biblical reconstructive approach to Matthew and narrative theology The author offers the idea of evangelism as storytelling namely witnessing the trinitarian God through embodied storytelling of the gospel which encourages the rediscovery of witness narratives in the form of testimonials that contain the voices roles experiences and understandings of women in witnessing the gospel The Study of Evangelism Paul W. Chilcote, Lacey C.

Warner, 2008-02-13 Christians and communities of faith today are rediscovering evangelism as an essential aspect of the church's mission Many of the resulting books in the marketplace however have a hands on orientation often lacking serious theological engagement and reflection Bucking that how to trend The Study of Evangelism offers thirty groundbreaking essays that plumb the depths of the biblical and theological heritage of the church with reference to evangelistic practice Helpfully organized into six categories these broad diverse writings lay a solid scholarly foundation for meaningful dialogue about the church's practice of evangelism New-York Observer, 1905 New York Observer and Chronicle, 1906

Pivotal Decades John Cooper, 1990-08-07 Contemporary American began in the first two decades of this century These were the years in which two of our greatest presidents Theodore Roosevelt and Woodrow Wilson transformed the office into the center of power in which the United States entered the world stage and fought its first overseas war in which the government's proper role in the economy became a public question and in which reform became an imperative for muckraking reporters progressive politicians social activists and writers It was a golden age in American politics when fundamental ideas were given compelling expression by thoughtful candidates It was a trying time however for many Americans including women who fought for the vote blacks who began organizing to secure their rights and activists on the Left who lost theirs in the first Red Scare of the century John Cooper's panoramic history of this period shows us where we came from and sheds light on where we are When the Gospel Grows Feet Thomas M. Kelly, 2013-05-01 The Salvadoran priest Rutilio Grande SJ was killed in a hail of bullets on March 12 1977 along with two passengers in the car he drove The impact of this killing transformed his friend and archbishop Oscar Romero as well as the church in Latin America and throughout the world How could powerful forces within the overwhelmingly Catholic country of El Salvador execute a Roman Catholic priest and two innocent people in broad daylight in front of witnesses Why would this same government go to the extreme of murdering thousands of lay Catholic ministers dozens of priests and even the nation's archbishop Why would the government and the oligarchy that supported it believe it necessary to repress the church in such a brutal manner Thomas Kelly finds answers to these questions by exploring the church's identity and mission during the colonial period 1500 1820 and the transformative impact of Vatican II 1962 65 on the Latin American bishops He considers Grande's life formation ministry and death and his impact on Archbishop Romero Finally Kelly explains what Grande and the church of El Salvador can teach North American Catholics today Theo-Politics? Markus Höfner, 2021-10-25 Using the theological work of Karl

Barth as a resource for present day inquiry the contributors in this volume discuss the complex interconnections between the religious and the political designated by the term theopolitics Speaking from various political and cultural contexts Germany the United Kingdom the United States Hong Kong Taiwan and the People's Republic of China and different disciplinary perspectives Protestant Theology Political Sciences and Sociology the contributors address contemporary challenges in relating the religious and the political in Western and Asian societies Topics analyzed include the impact of diverse cultural backgrounds on given theopolitical arrangements theological assessments of political power the political significance of individual and communal Christian existence and the place of Christian communities in civil societies In their nuanced discussions of these topics the contributors neither advocate for a privatized apolitical understanding of the Christian faith nor for a religious politics seeking to overcome modern processes of differentiation and secularization Critically engaging Barth's theology they examine the Christian responsibility in and for the political sphere and reflect on the practice of such responsibility in Western and Asian contexts

AN EXTRA-ORDINARY DISTINCTIVENESS Elisa Estévez López, 2023-09-01 We live in societies that hunger and thirst for spirituality Today we are witnessing the resurgence of the human being's search to give value and meaning to one's own life and a sign of this is the demand to find spaces where to cultivate interiority the taste for spirituality The paths offered are very diverse This work reflects on the lay spirituality proposed by Pedro Poveda Some itineraries are offered in order to live the faith today in present day societies and to be credible and audacious witnesses of the Gospel Poveda proposes a way of being a way of being present and committing oneself that makes visible in daily life the extraordinary distinctiveness of those who walk in the footsteps of the Risen Lord Pax Pneuma Cheryl Bridges-Johns, Anthea Butler, Arlene Sanchez-Walsh, Marlon Millner, Martin William Mittelstadt, 2009-03-24 PCPJ MISSION STATEMENT To encourage enable and sustain peacemaking and justice seeking as authentic and integral aspects of Pentecostal Charismatic Christianity witnessing to the conviction that Jesus Christ is relevant to all tensions crises and brokenness in the world The PCPJ seeks to show that addressing injustice and making peace as Jesus and his followers did is theologically sound biblically commanded and realistically possible Editorial Board Cheryl Bridges Johns Pentecostal Theological Seminary Anthea Butler University of Pennsylvania Jong Hyun Jung University of Southern California Martin Mittelstadt Evangel University Dario Lopez Rodriguez Gamaliel Biblical Seminary of the Church of God Lima Peru Paul Alexander Managing Editor Azusa Pacific University Assistant Editors Erica Ramirez Wheaton College Brian K Pipkin Mennonite Disaster Services Robert G Reid Brite Divinity School

A New Dawn, or the Fading of the Light? Culture and Evangelization Today John C. Gallagher C.S.B., 2019-12-05 Parents are disheartened when their children fall away from religious practice Pastoral workers wonder how they can get people to take religion seriously Something is at work that is puzzling but we can learn something useful about it A crucial factor is the role of culture To have faith is an act of individual responsibility but it can also be influenced by life around us For example popular opinion or concentration on making a fortune can make us deaf to any message about what lies beyond our immediate concerns This book is the fruit of the author s extensive study of how cultural forces influence attitudes Calling on long experience lecturing and in pastoral ministry he shows how cultural factors influence religious belief in our times and how ordinary believers can be active participants in creating a culture that opens us to God s word

A History of Protestantism in Korea Dae Young Ryu, 2022-03-01 This book provides a comprehensive overview of Protestant Christianity in Korea It outlines the development of Christianity in Korea before Protestantism considers the introduction of Protestantism in the late nineteenth century and its widening and profound impact and goes on to discuss the situation up to the present Throughout the book emphasises the importance of Protestantism for Korean national life highlights the key role Protestantism has played in Korea s social political and cultural development including in North Korea whose first leader Kim Il Sung was the son of devout Protestant parents and demonstrates how Protestantism continues to be a vital force for Korean society overall

Baptist Political Theology Thomas S. Kidd, Paul D. Miller, Andrew T. Walker, 2023-07-01 Baptist ideals like the separation of church and state have indelibly shaped Western democracies and Baptist thinkers continue to influence public policy and political engagement today Yet the historical contours enduring commitments and current contributions of Baptist political thought are little understood Baptist Political Theology edited by scholars Thomas Kidd Paul Miller and Andrew Walker introduces readers to the full sweep of Baptist engagement with politics Part 1 reviews the life writings and political activity of important figures in Baptist history as well as Baptist involvement in key historical eras and episodes Part 2 presents a collective effort at applied political theology with essays relating Baptist principles to a range of contemporary issues This monumental volume sheds light on the history and contemporary practice of Baptists in the public square offering context and clarity for Baptist political thought in the years to come An Assessment of Mass Meetings as a Method of Evangelism William Thomas, 2024-09-16 The Congregationalist, 1927 Not by Politics Alone Sara Diamond, 2000-01-01 In this incisive work Sara Diamond expands our understanding of the Christian Right beyond what is commonly known about its electoral clout shedding light on the rarely seen boundaries and intersections where politics and culture converge The book examines the web of grassroots cultural institutions including publishing houses law firms broadcast stations and church centered community programs that have helped conservative evangelical groups maintain their influence for over two decades Highlighting the movement's complex alliance with the Republican Party Diamond provides a rare behind the scenes look at the formation organizing strategies and heated internal debates of such powerful national organizations as Focus on the Family and the Christian Coalition She offers a richly textured analysis of how the rubric of family values has been used to infuse evangelical beliefs into local and national discussions around such disparate issues as childrearing gay rights abortion public education and funding for the arts
