Political Science in Europe Thibaud

Boncourt, Isabelle Engeli, Diego Garzia, 2020-05-28 The last half century has been a defining period for the development of political science in Europe disciplinary norms have become institutionalized in professional organizations training units and research centres the scholarly community has dramatically grown in size across the continent the analytical and methodological tools of the discipline are increasingly sophisticated and the knowledge disseminated under the label political science is bigger than it has ever been Political Science in Europe takes stock of these developments and reflects on the achievements of the discipline and the challenges it faces Is there a distinctive European blend of political science Is the European political science community cohesive and inclusive How does the discipline cope with the neoliberalisation of academia and the diffusion of illiberal politics Leading and up and coming political scientists answer these questions by discussing the discipline's key concepts and intellectual trends its professional structures and its relationship with its social economic and political environment
