and reflective diaries and writings Her private and published writings show that despite the appearances of the quintessential normal life Colby struggled to reconcile her personal hopes and ambitions with the expectations and obligations placed on her by society Author Tina Stewart Brakebill has woven original research with secondary material to form the fabric of Colby's life from her days as the daughter of an Ohio dairy farmer to her relationship with her daughter a pioneering university professor

Club Cultures Silvia Rief, 2011-04-27 This book explores contemporary club and dance cultures as a manifestation of aesthetic and prosthetic forms of life Rief addresses the questions of how practices of clubbing help cultivate particular forms of reflexivity and modes of experience and how these shape new devices for reconfiguring the boundaries around youth cultural and other social identities She contributes empirical analyses of how such forms of experience are mediated by the particular structures of night clubbing economies the organizational regulation and the local organization of experience in club spaces the media discourses and imageries the technologies intervening into the sense system of the body e.g. music visuals drugs and the academic discourses on dance culture Although the book draws from local club scenes in London and elsewhere in the UK it also reflects on similarities and differences between nightclubbing cultures across geographical contexts

Peace and Friendship Stephen Aron, 2022 For over 35 years the dominant histories of the American West have been narratives of horrific conflicts As dark and as bloody as western grounds have often been however there were also important episodes of concord instances of barriers breached accords reached and of people overcoming their differences as opposed to being overcome by them Peace and Friendship highlights the instances of cohabitation deepening our understanding of how the West came to be through colonization violence misunderstanding and surprisingly at times peace
