Possession A. S. Byatt, 1992-07-27 Possession is an exhilarating novel of wit and romance at once a literary detective novel and a triumphant love story It is the tale of a pair of young scholars investigating the lives of two Victorian poets Following a trail of letters journals and poems they uncover a web of passion deceit and tragedy and their quest becomes a battle against time WINNER OF THE BOOKER PRIZE Possession A. S. Byatt, 2012-04-18 BOOKER PRIZE WINNER NATIONAL BESTSELLER A tale of two young scholars researching the secret love affair of two Victorian poets that is an exhilarating novel of wit and romance an intellectual mystery and a triumphant love story Gorgeously written A tour de force The New York Times Book Review Winner of England's Booker Prize and a literary sensation Possession traces the lives of a pair of young academics as they uncover a clandestine relationship between two long dead Victorian poets As they unearth their letters journals and poems and track their movements from London to Yorkshire from spiritualist séances to the fairy haunted far west of Brittany what emerges is an extraordinary counterpoint of passions and ideas A.S. Byatt and the Heliotropic Imagination Jane Campbell, 2004-05-26 Contemporary writer Byatt uses the term heliotropic in two ways First it refers to her exploration and development of her own relation to the sun and to how her women characters experience adventures of the mind and feelings that bring them into the sun's light Second it refers to the fact that she suffers from seasonal affective disorder and Refracting the Canon in Contemporary British Literature and Film Susana Onega Jaén, Christian Gutleben, 2004 Contemporary works of art that remodel the canon not only create complex hybrid and plural products but also alter our perceptions and understanding of their source texts This is the dual process referred to in this volume as refraction that the essays collected here set out to discuss and analyse by focusing on the dialectic rapport between postmodernism and the canon What is sought in many of the essays is a redefinition of postmodernist art and a re examination of the canon in the light of contemporary epistemology Given this dual process this volume will be of value both to everyone interested in contemporary art particularly fiction drama and film and also to readers whose aim it is to promote a better appreciation of canonical British literature Intertextuality and Victorian Studies Sudha Shastri,2001 This book explores the recall of the Victorians displayed by select novels ranging in time from Rhys s Wide Sargasso Sea 1996 to A S Byatt s Possession A Romance 1990 These Victorianist novels are complex studies of Victorian literature society and modes of representation

The Booker Prize and the Legacy of Empire Luke Strongman,2021-12-28 This book is about the Booker Prize the London based literary award made annually to the best novel written in English by a writer from one of those countries belonging to or formerly part of the British Commonwealth The approach to the Prize is thematically historical and spans the award period to 1999 The novels that have won or shared the Prize in this period are examined within a theoretical framework mapping the literary terrain of the fiction Individual chapters explore themes that occur within the larger narrative formed by this body of novels collectively invoked cultures social trends and movements spanning the stages of imperial heyday and decline as perceived over the past three decades Individually and collectively the novels mirror often in terms of more than a single static image British imperial culture after empire contesting and reinterpreting perceptions of the historical moment of the British Empire and its legacy in contemporary culture The body of Booker novels narrates the demise of empire and the emergence of different cultural formations in its aftermath The novels are grouped for discussion according to the way in which they deal with aspects of the transition from empire to a post imperial culture from early imperial expansion through colonization retrenchment decolonization and postcolonial pessimism to the emergence of tribal nationalisms and post imperial nation states The focus throughout is primarily literary and contingently cultural

Verse, Voice, and Vision Marlisa Santos,2013-09-26 Although it is a somewhat underrepresented form of literature in popular sensibility poetry finds relevance in the modern world through its appearance in cinema Film adaptations of poems and depictions of poets on the screen date back to the silent era and continue to the present day However there have been few serious studies of how cinema has represented the world of poetic expression In Verse Voice and Vision Poetry and the Cinema Marlisa Santos has compiled essays that explore the relationship between one of the world s oldest art forms poetry and one of the world s newest art forms film The book is divided into three sections poets on film poetry as film and film as poetry Topics include analyses of poet biopics such as Mrs Parker and the Vicious Circle filmic representations of poets or poetic studies including Pyaasa films inspired by particular poems such as Splendor in the Grass and the avant garde phenomenon of the poem film such as The Tree of Life Poetic influences considered in this volume range from William Shakespeare to e e cummings and the films discussed hail from several different countries including the U S the U K India China Italy and Argentina Featuring a great diversity in the age genres and countries of origin of the films these essays provide an in depth look at how poetry has been interpreted on film over the years By addressing a heretofore unexamined aspect of film studies Verse Voice and Vision will appeal to fans and scholars of both literature and cinema A.S. Byatt

Mariadele Boccardi,2013-02-15 This comprehensive new study offers a detailed analysis of all of Byatt s fiction and also discusses her critical output Mariadele Boccardi examines Byatt s work in the light of postmodern concerns with language narrative and self referentiality Epistolary Encounters in Neo-Victorian Fiction K. Brindle,2014-01-24 Neo Victorian writers invoke conflicting viewpoints in diaries letters etc to creatively retrace the past in fragmentary and contradictory ways This book explores the complex desires involved in epistolary discoveries of hidden Victorians offering new insight into the creative synthesising of critical thought within the neo Victorian novel The Fiction of A.S. Byatt Louisa Hadley,2017-09-16 This Guide examines the key critical responses to Byatt s fiction both her novels and short stories tracing the wider debates about realism postmodernism and feminism with which they engage The Guide also explores the themes which are central to Byatt s work such as her depiction of writer figures and her conception of artistic vision Literature and Sensation Anthony Uhlmann,2008-12-18 I never travel without my diary One should always have something sensational to read in the train Oscar Wilde Literature has always treated the sensational crime passion violence trauma catastrophe It has frequently caused or been at the centre of scandal censorship and moral outrage But literature is also intricately connected with sensation in ways that are less well understood It mediates between the sensory world perception and cognition through rich modes of thought allied with perceptions and emotions and makes sense of profound questions that transcend the merely rational And at its boundaries literature engages with the uncanny realm in which knowledge presentiment or feeling is prior to articulation in words This book reviews the sensational dimension of literature according to themes that have too often been left to one side Literary theory has often privileged perception over sensation cognition over raw experience in focusing on semantics rather than sense The essays in this volume cover literature and sensation in all its facets drawing upon a range of approaches from evolutionary theory theories of mind perception philosophy and aesthetics The works considered are drawn from various literary periods and genres from the nineteenth century to contemporary prose and poetry including experiments in new media Literature and Sensation offers detailed and subtle readings of literature according to the sensations they represent incite or evoke in us and will be of interest to readers of literary theory ethics and aesthetics and theorists of new media art A Companion to the British and Irish Novel, 1945 - 2000 Brian W. Shaffer,2008-04-15 A Companion to the British and Irish Novel 1945 2000 serves as an extended introduction and reference guide to the British and Irish novel between the close of World War II and the turn of the millennium Covers a wide range of authors from Samuel Beckett to Salman Rushdie Provides readings of key novels including Graham Greene s Heart of the Matter Jean Rhys s Wide Sargasso Sea and Kazuo Ishiguro s The Remains of the Day Considers particular subgenres such as the feminist novel and the postcolonial novel Discusses overarching cultural political and literary trends such as screen adaptations and the literary prize phenomenon Gives readers a sense of the richness and diversity of the novel during this period and of the vitality with which it continues to be discussed British Women Writing Fiction Abby H.P. Werlock, 2000-02-09 Original essays by American and British scholars offer a reader friendly introduction to the work of Angela Carter Doris Lessing and a dozen other British women writers British women in the second half of the 20th century have produced a body of work that is as diverse as it is entertaining This book offers an informal jargon free introduction to the fiction of sixteen contemporary writers either brought up or now living in England from Muriel Spark to Jeanette Winterson British Women Writing Fiction presents a balanced view comprising women writing since the 1950s and 1960s those who attracted critical attention during the 1970s and 1980s and those who have burst upon the literary scene more recently including African Caribbean and African women The essays show how all of these writers treat British subjects and themes sometimes from radically different perspectives and how those who are daughters of immigrants see themselves as women writing on the margins of society Abby Werlock's introduction explores the historical and aesthetic factors that have contributed to the genre showing how even those writers who began in a traditional vein have created experimental work The contributors provide complete bibliographies of each writer's works and selected bibliographies of criticism Exceptional both in its breadth of subjects covered and critical approaches taken this book provides essential background that will enable readers to appreciate the singular merits of each writer It offers an approach toward better understanding favorite authors and provides a way to become acquainted with new ones Postmodern, Marxist, and Christian Historical Novels

Lynne W. Hinojosa, 2022-06-15 Postmodern Marxist and Christian Historical Novels Hope and the Burdens of History argues historical novels can help readers receive the burdens of history meaning both the burdens of the past present and future and the burden of living in time and develop a more robust conception of and concrete practice of hope Since the 1960s historical novels have been a dominant literary genre but they have been influenced primarily not by Christian but by postmodern and marxist thinkers and writers This book provides a theological and literary analysis of all three types of historical novels postmodern marxist and Christian and outlines what each school of thought can learn from each other regarding historical understanding and hope Using Jürgen Moltmann's theology of hope and Frank Kermode's literary criticism as a theoretical basis the book offers readings of novels by Julian Barnes A.S. Byatt Kazuo Ishiguro Margaret Atwood Michael Ondaatje Ian McEwan and Ursula LeGuin among others and ends with an extended analysis of Marilynne Robinson's Gilead series Melusine's Footprint, 2017-11-13 In Melusine's Footprint Tracing the Legacy of a Medieval Myth editors

Misty Urban Deva Kemmis and Melissa Ridley Elmes offer an invigorating international and interdisciplinary examination of the legendary fairy Melusine Along with fresh insights into the popular French and German traditions these essays investigate Melusine's English Dutch Spanish and Chinese counterparts and explore her roots in philosophy folklore and classical myth Combining approaches from art history history alchemy literature cultural studies and medievalism applying rigorous critical lenses ranging from feminism and comparative literature to film and monster theory this volume brings
