American Woman Suffrage Postcards Kenneth Florey, 2016-04-29 American women's suffrage activists were fascinated with suffrage themed postcards. They collected them, exchanged them, wrote about them, used them as fundraisers and organized postcard day campaigns. The cards they produced were imaginative and ideological, advancing arguments for the enfranchisement of women and responding to antisuffrage broadsides. Commercial publishers were also interested in suffrage cards, recognizing their profit potential. Their products though, were reactive rather than proactive, conveying stereotypes they assumed reflected public attitudes, often negative towards the movement. Cataloging approximately 700 examples, this study examines the visual rhetoric of suffrage postcards in the context of the movement itself and as part of the general history of postcards.

Catalog of Catalogs: A Bibliography of Temporary Exhibition Catalogs Since 1876 that Contain Items of Judaica William Gross, Orly Tzion, Falk Wiesemann, 2019-09-16 Catalog of Catalogs provides a comprehensive index of nearly 2,300 publications documenting the exhibition of Judaica over the past 140 years. This vast corpus of material, ranging from simple leaflets to scholarly catalogs, contains textual and visual material as yet unmined for the study of Jewish art, religion, culture, and history. Through highly detailed, fully indexed catalog entries, William Gross, Orly Tzion, and Falk Wiesemann elucidate some 2,000 subjects, geographical locations, and Judaica objects, ceremonial objects, illuminated manuscripts, printed books, synagogues, cemeteries, et al. addressed in these catalogs. Descriptions of the catalog's bibliographic components, contributors, exhibition history, and contents, all accessible through the volume's five indices, render this volume an unparalleled new resource for the study of Jewish Art, culture, and history.

Postcards in the Library Norman D. Stevens, 2014-01-09 Postcards individually and collectively contain a great deal of information that can be of real value to students and researchers. Postcards in the Library gives compelling reasons why libraries should take a far more active and serious interest in establishing and maintaining postcard collections and in encouraging the use of these collections. It explains the nature and accessibility of existing postcard collections, techniques for acquiring, arranging, preserving, and handling collections, and ways to make researchers and patrons aware of these collections. Postcards in the Library asserts that in most cases, existing postcard collections are a vastly underutilized scholarly resource. Editor Norman D. Stevens urges librarians to help change this, since postcards, as items for mass consumption and often with no apparent conscious literary or social purpose, are a true reflection of the society in which they were produced. Stevens claims that messages written on postcards may also reveal a great deal about individual and/or societal attitudes and ideas. Chapters in Postcards in the Library are written by librarians who manage postcard collections, postcard collectors, and researchers. Some of the authors have undertaken major research projects that demonstrate the ways in which postcards can be used in research and that have begun to establish a standard methodology for the analysis of postcards. They write about major postcard collections, including the Institute of Deltiology and the Curt Teich Postcard Archives, the use of postcards for scholarly research postcard conservation and preservation arrangement and organization and importance and value Postcards in the Library describes the postcard collections in a variety of libraries of different kinds and sizes and indicates very real ways in which the effective use of postcard collections can result in and contribute to substantive scholarly publications It also offers advice and suggestions on the myriad issues that libraries face in handling these ephemeral fragments of popular culture Special collections librarians postcard collectors postcard dealers and historical societies will find the information in Postcards in the Library refreshing and practical Libraries with established postcard collections or those thinking about developing postcard collections will use it as a valuable planning tool and start to finish guide

Women Making History Julia M. Allen, Jocelyn H. Cohen, 2023-10-16 Tells the story of Helaine Victoria Press the first publisher of women's history postcards Catalogue Bernard Quaritch (Firm), 1920 The Play Pictorial, 1903 The Dictionary of Picture Postcards in Britain, 1894-1939 A. W. Coysh, Arthur Wilfred Coysh, 1996 Full of relevant information this book covers the whole field of picture postcard production in Britain It is an indispensable reference to a vast amount of collectable pictorial material Israeli and Palestinian Postcards Tim Jon Semmerling, 2021 No detailed description available for Israeli and Palestinian Postcards A Friendship That Lasted a Lifetime Gerhard Wagner, Gilbert Weiss, 2011-02-21 Scholarly correspondence can be as insightful as scholarly work itself as it often documents the motivating forces of its writers intellectual ideas while illuminating their lives more clearly The more complex the authors scholarly works and the more troubled the eras in which they lived the more substantial and potentially fascinating their correspondence This is especially true of the letters between Alfred Schutz 1899 1959 and Eric Voegelin 1901 1985 The scholars lived in incredibly dramatic times and produced profound complex works that continue to confound academics The communication between these two giants of the social sciences as they sent their thoughts to one another was crucial to the work of both men A Friendship That Lasted a Lifetime The Correspondence between Alfred Schutz and Eric Voegelin demonstrates that Schutz and Voegelin shared a remarkable friendship they first met as students in Vienna in the 1920s and found themselves great partners in discussion years later they were pushed out of Europe by Nazi pressure and went to work at separate American universities For twenty years they wrote each other developing their respective scientific works in that dialogue The letters bear witness to their friendship during the years they spent in exile in the United States and they document the men's tentative attempts at formulating the theories of lifeworld and gnosis associated with Schutz and Voegelin today The entire collection of 238 letters was printed in German in 2004 but this edited volume is the first to present their correspondence in English and offers a selection of the most important letters those that contributed to the thinkers theoretical discussions and served as background to their most significant thoughts Editors Gerhard Wagner and Gilbert Weiss do not analyze Schutz's and Voegelin's works in light of the correspondence rather they present the collection to create a framework for new interpretations A Friendship That Lasted a Lifetime takes a unique look at two major social scientists This volume is a valuable resource in the study of Voegelin's political philosophy and Alfred Schutz's contribution to American sociology and marks an important addition to the literature on these remarkable men Showing how scholarly discourse and the dialogue of everyday life can shed light on one another the book finally presents this correspondence for an American audience and is not to be missed by scholars of philosophy and sociology The Traces of Jacques Derrida's Cinema Timothy Holland, 2024 Situated at the intersection of film and media studies literary theory and continental philosophy The Traces of Jacques Derrida's Cinema provides a trenchant account of the role of cinema in the oeuvre of one of the most influential philosophers of the twentieth century Jacques Derrida 1930-2004 The book is animated by Derrida's self-confessed passion for the movies his reluctance to write about film despite the range of his corpus and the generative encounters arising between his legacy and the field of film and media studies as a result Given the expanse of its references interdisciplinarity and consideration of Derrida's approach to the experience of both spectatorship and the act of being filmed The Traces of Jacques Derrida's Cinema contributes to the ongoing close analyses of the philosopher's work while also providing a rigorous introduction to deconstruction Author Timothy Holland interweaves historical and speculative modes of research and writing to articulate the peripheral yet surprisingly crucial place of the cinematic medium for Derrida and his philosophical enterprise The outcome is a meticulously detailed survey of the centers and margins of Derrida's oeuvre that include forays into such terrain as his notable appearances in films an unrealized project on cinema and belief that Derrida proposed in a 2001 interview the correspondences between the strategies of deconstruction and the traditions homecomings and wordplay of David Lynch's cinematic media and the questions wedded to the future of film studies amid the vicissitudes of the modern virtual university Ultimately Holland pursues the thinking activated by the flickering of Derrida's cinema not only the absence and presence of film in Derrida's professional and personal life but also the rigor of academic discourse and the pleasures of the movies ghosts and technology religious faith and scientific knowledge and ruination and survival as a critical chance for reflection The Bookman, 1904 Art Nouveau Postcards Giovanni Fanelli, Ezio Godoli, 1987 Inleiding afbeeldingen van prentbriefkaarten en biografische gegevens van de kunstenaars ontwerpers Statecraft and Spectacle in East Asia Adam Clulow, 2013-09-13 Statecraft and Spectacle in East Asia is a multidisciplinary collection of essays that explores the intertwined histories of Taiwan and Japan across the long sweep of the early modern and modern periods Drawing on new research by scholars from Europe North America and Asia Pacific it moves beyond the conventional focus on the mechanics of the Japanese colonial state to provide new perspectives on a highly significant relationship that shaped the nature of the modern East Asian political landscape Ranging from the seventeenth century to the chaotic aftermath of empire the papers collected here consider Tokugawa Japan's halting engagement with Taiwan as a key world historical moment that illuminates changing attitudes towards maritime expansion the ways in which the colonial project was packaged and sold in print as well as image and the complex legal discourses surrounding the making and unmaking of empire Together they show how influence flowed both ways between Taiwan and Japan and the importance of inter Asian interactions This book was published as a special issue of Japanese Studies Mind the Gap: Borders, Limits and Frontiers Cahir Healy,2025-05-19

How do borders define political cultural and social realms influencing identity and community Mind the Gap Borders Limits and Frontiers explores such questions and comprises two parts the first section compiles interdisciplinary essays from leading scholars to critique borders in our global yet divided world Topics include national borders such as the Northern Irish border as well as conceptual and ontological borders more generally Border issues are similarly key to the second part of the book which publishes for the first time the imprisonment memoir of Irish politician Cahir Healy 1877 1970 who was a leading figure in the protest against the Partition of Ireland His memoir offers a first hand account of the conditions faced by Healy and other border objectors who were illegally imprisoned for two years on board the Argenta ship in Belfast Lough c 1922 1924 This book therefore goes beyond mapping border theory it addresses the real life impact of borders on those who confront them daily and is a vital read for those interested in border studies The Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record ,1925 English Mechanic and Mirror of Science ,1892 British Books ,1903
