April 10, 2050

Shayna Short
Pickett-Mann Logistics
995 Water Street
San Francisco, CA 94104

Dear Shayna,

I hope this letter finds you in good health. I, Ronald Haddock, am writing to you on behalf of our organization, the Teal Panthers. We are seeking sponsorship for our cheerleading squad for the upcoming sports season. Our teams, particularly the cheerleaders, are enthusiastic and dedicated, always bringing energy to all our games.

Your financial support will enable us to continue providing our cheerleading squad with quality uniforms and necessary practice equipment. In return for your generous sponsorship, we will offer several promotional incentives which include your company logo on our cheerleading uniforms and banners at all of our games.

This will give your company excellent public exposure and in return, it will help us to

Hiring Cheerleaders Lauren Cohen, 2008 We test the hypothesis that firms appoint independent directors who are overly sympathetic to management while still technically independent according to regulatory definitions We explore a subset of independent directors for whom we have detailed micro level data on their views regarding the firm prior to being appointed to the board sell side analysts who end up serving on the board of companies they previously covered We find striking evidence that boards appoint overly optimistic analysts who exhibit little skill in evaluating the firm itself other firms within the firm's industry or even other firms in general The magnitude of the optimistic bias is large 82 0% of appointed recommendations are strong buy buy recommendations compared to 56 9% for all other analyst recommendations We find that appointed analysts optimism is stronger at precisely those times when firms benefits are larger and that appointed analysts appear to be more closely tied to appointing firms than the title independent director would suggest Our results challenge the widely held view that appointments of independent directors necessarily add objectivity to the board of a firm
