

INTEGRATED SOCIAL SCIENCES CLASS – ASSIGNMENT ONE

The Integrated Social Sciences Class is based on the principle that learning is best achieved through authentic experiences. Although studying textbooks and past papers will be useful, it is important in the learning process that you use the materials. The primary responsibility of teachers and supervisors with these materials is that students regularly improve their understanding of the learning process by completing the Integrated Social Sciences Class. The learning objectives of the Integrated Social Sciences Class are:

- i. To help you understand the interrelationships among the social systems involved in world/global social history and formation and identify the social's impact.
- ii. To obtain hands-on practice in the preparation of an academic work paper.
- iii. To develop skills in analyzing textbooks and applying social knowledge.
- iv. To develop skills in oral communication and applying social knowledge.
- v. To evaluate the social systems established to support the world's economy and the formation of the social agent.
