May 15, 20--

To Whom It May Concern:

This letter is a personal recommendation for Justin Horter. Justin has been a member of United Youth Volunteers for the past seven years. During that time, I have come to know Justin very well.

Justin has been actively involved in our youth volunteer program. He has made a fine contribution to the organization and has assisted in fund-raising projects during the past four years. When Justin began studying communications at his college, he showed a real enthusiasm for his studies. Using the skills he was learning in school, he became an organizer for United Youth Volunteers' fund-raising projects. His advertising efforts for these projects helped them become far more successful than we had anticipated.

I believe that Justin's excellent character and his desire to succeed in his chosen career will make him an excellent employee.

Sincerely,

Norman Mazer
Coordinator
United Youth Volunteers

The Letter to the Romans Douglas J. Moo, 2018-11-26 For more than twenty years, Douglas Moo's NICNT volume on Romans has been providing pastors, students, and scholars with profound insight into Paul's most famous letter. In this thorough revision of his commentary, Moo deals with issues that have come into prominence since the first edition, 1996, incorporating the latest research and rewriting the text throughout for better comprehension. Exegetically astute and theologically minded, Moo interacts critically with the new perspective on Paul, highlights the emphasis in Romans on practical divinity, and traces the theme of the gospel throughout the letter. His Letter to the Romans in this second edition will inform and enlighten a new generation of serious Bible readers.
