Pourquoi Pas Moi:

Queering Contemporary French Popular Cinema Darren Waldron, 2009 Queering Contemporary French Popular Cinema combines close film analysis with a small scale qualitative investigation of audience responses to examine images of queerness in contemporary French popular cinema and their reception Through its blending of the textual and the empirical this book provides a unique insight into the ways in which sexuality and gender are represented on the cinema screen as well as the spectator reactions they elicit Since the mid 1990s depictions of lesbians gay men and queer forms of sexual desire and identity have shifted to the mainstream of French cinematographic representation as evidenced by the box office success of a series of highly commercial comic films including Gazon maudit Josiane Balasko 1995 Pdale douce Gabriel Aghion 1996 Le Placard Francis Ver 2000 and Chouchou Merzak Allouache 2003 Alongside this commercial strand a series of small budget alternative comedies and other genre films have also challenged heteronormative conceptualizations of sexuality and gender Films such as Sitcom Fran ois Ozon 1998 L Homme est une femme comme les autres Jean Jacques Zilbermann 1997 Pourquoi pas moi St phane Giusti 1999 Dr le de Flix Olivier Ducastel and Jacques Martineau 2000 and Les Chansons d amour Christophe Honor 2007 portray desire as fluid and or gender as unfixed With their use of parody and their blending of comedy with the musical melodrama romance or road movie these and other similar films have resonated with a burgeoning viewing public tired of having to seek queerness in connotation of appropriating marginal characters in ostensibly straight narratives and of tragedy and trauma as the principal modes of representation and spectator address , After the Rite Maureen A. Carr, 2014 After the Rite Stravinsky s Path to Neoclassicism 1914 1925 traces the evolution of Stravinsky s compositional style as he searched for his own voice in the explosive musical world of the early 20th century as he responded to harsh criticisms of his work Sapphism on Screen Lucille Cairns, 2006-03-30 This book sets out to investigate and theorise mediations of lesbian desire in a substantial corpus of films spanning the period 1936 2002 by male and female directors working in France and also in French speaking parts of Belgium Canada Switzerland and Africa The corpus is unique in never before having been assembled and represents a valuable tool not just for researchers but also for university teachers creating courses both on lesbianism in film and on sexuality in French cinema A fair number of the 89 texts treated are mainstream films which have achieved high critical acclaim and or high viewing figures to cite just a few examples Henri Georges Clouzot s Quai des orfèvres 1947 Louis Malle s Milou en mai 1989 Claude Chabrol s La Ceremonie 1995 Andre Techine s Les Voleurs 1995 and Francois Ozon s Huit femmes 2001 As such they have contributed to hegemonic constructions of and debate on female homosexuality in a century wherein sexed gendered identity including sexual orientation has become a preeminent factor in the constitution of subjectivity While such constructions and debate have a French language specificity and have been produced in distinct socio political and cultural contexts this study also engages in analytical comparisons with relevant anglophone films and their own distinct discursive contexts Catalog of Copyright
