*Debra Cope
Allentown Business School
Theta of Pennsylvania
1501 Lehigh Street
Allentown, Pennsylvania 18103*

Dear Debra Cope:

The fact that you have been elected to Membership in the Alpha Beta Kappa Honor Society immediately distinguishes you from other students in your graduating class. It proves that you understand the meaning of hard work and are willing to go the "extra distance" necessary to achieve academic excellence.

The emblem, the gold key, should be worn with pride. It bears the Greek letters A.B.K., a five-pointed star, laurel branches, and two of the finest words in any language -- "Integrity" and "Excellence." Your Certificate is the official record of your accomplishment and should be proudly displayed for all to see.

By words and example, Members of the Alpha Beta Kappa National Honor Society should reflect the concern, modesty, friendly spirit and good nature that characterize the qualities found in true leaders.

You are to be commended; and hopefully, this accomplishment will inspire you to reach new levels of achievement in your life, both personally and professionally.

Sincerely,

*Christopher Davis, President
Alpha Beta Kappa Honor Society*

Theel,2002-04-27 The major research questions for this study were a What forms do teacher interview portfolios take b What meaning do school principals make of these portfolios c How if at all are teacher portfolios being used by principals in deciding whom to hire This was a case study using qualitative research procedures The study was situated in the hiring policies and practices of Central City School District from 1995 to 1999 Semi structured interviews of 18 k 12 principals and 4 key informants were primary means of data gathering Document analyses supplemented interview data Interview portfolios typically consisted of lesson plans photographs of projects activities and teacher student interactions and supporting examples of classroom practice Statements of educational philosophy credentials letters of reference transcripts and other background information were also included Most principals viewed portfolios as a way for candidates to express their educational beliefs illustrate skills and methods and supplement the interview with examples from applicants experience Principals expressed a desire for more evidence of having used the portfolio development process as a means of reflection and introspection Overall interview portfolios were not key contributors to principals hiring decisions The reasons for this varied Some principals mentioned time constraints during interviews Others expressed skepticism that portfolios provided meaningful evidence of candidates teaching ability and people skills Propositions and implications for future research center on portfolio format and assessment criteria authenticity and self knowledge selection interview procedures teacher preparation teacher recruitment and hiring and information management in Central City School District Perhaps one of the most valuable benefits of the portfolio process lies in the development of a new norm for the profession placing discussion and debate about what constitutes good teaching into a public forum      We the Students Jamin B. Raskin,2008-07-23 This unique reference has introduced countless students to the field of legal studies by studying Supreme Court issues that directly affect young people For this third edition

CQ Press worked directly with educators to retain the best features of the previous editions while updating and further refining the material including a significantly expanded treatment of Equal Protection and discrimination. The book's freshly updated design facilitates student comprehension with new features such as legal definitions in the margin, a Dissenting Voices section to provide context for minority judicial opinions, new exercises, and much more. How to Prepare a Standout College Application Alison Cooper Chisolm, Anna Ivey, 2013-08-06 Demystifying the process of completing a college application. Written by two former admissions officers at top universities and current admissions coaches, this book is a must have for preparing a winning college application. The authors reveal the mystery behind what college admissions officers are looking for and show applicants how to leverage their credentials, stand out in the over crowded applicants pool, and make a genuine, memorable impression. This is the book that will help the college bound get off the like many others pile and onto the acceptance list. Includes instructions and examples for every component of the college application, from writing the essay to answering questions like "Why do you want to go to College X." Shows how to avoid underestimating the importance of critical features on any application. Includes the latest information on the Common Application 4.0 and corrects outdated holdover advice still stressed in many other books. This book is filled with step by step advice that students and parents can use immediately and will refer to again and again. Congressional Record United States. Congress, 1968 Counseling 21st Century Students for Optimal College and Career Readiness Corine Fitzpatrick, Kathleen Costantini, 2022-02-17 This second edition presents an updated action based curriculum for high school counselors that will meet the needs of 21st century students, helping to foster their growth and engage them in learning what they need to succeed beyond high school. This book takes a comprehensive developmental approach, focusing on 9th-12th grade students rather than solely on those in 11th and 12th grade. It provides a model for developing and enhancing a successful college advising office, as well as essential advice on methods of working with parents. Specific topics discussed include successful transition to 9th grade, using technology in the college and career advising process, assisting and advising students in college research and application, and helping seniors make successful transitions to college. There is also a special focus on students in urban and rural schools to enable them to have the same enriched experiences in their college and career advising program as those students in private and suburban schools. The curriculum is geared for use by school counselors, college advisors, and readers in graduate counseling student courses. School Activities, 1963 Becoming Critical Teacher Educators Julie Ellison Justice, F. Blake Tenore, 2017-06-26 The personal and professional are woven together in this collection of scholarly narratives by teacher educators who share their early critical experiences and model teaching practices to support continued resistance and possibilities in teacher education. Each chapter suggests practical tools and encourages readers to reflect on their own journeys of becoming transformational teacher educators. The Crisis, 1983-06 The Crisis, founded by W. E. B.
