Salt A Novel By Earl Lovelace:

Salt Earl Lovelace, 1996 Set in Trinidad multiple voices tell the story of this country which is struggling to reconcile the roles of landowner and slave in a future of freedom for all

Critical Voicings of Black Liberation Kimberley Louise Phillips, 2003 The contributions to Critical Voices of Black Liberation in the Americas originated from the 1999 CAAR Conference in Munster and from conferences held in the US in 2000 and 2001 More than half of the eleven essays consider black performances on stage in sound and on film the remaining essays explore slavery African American literature and nineteenth century black educators These exciting essays creatively examine artistic and or political articulation of black liberation as the construction of a new critical and signifying voice This liberated and critical voice asserts itself as much as a communal expression of black subjectivities as it is an articulation of the black self

Radical Narratives of the Black Atlantic Alan Rice, 2003-04-30 Broad based survey of trans Atlantic black culture Newest book in the popular Black Atlantic series Radical Narratives of the Black Atlantic is a multi faceted and interdisciplinary take on trans Atlantic black culture Alan Rice engages fully with Paul Gilroy's paradigm of the Black Atlantic through examination of a broad array of cultural genres including music dance folklore and oral literature fine art material culture film and literature The aspects of black culture under discussion range from black British gravesites to sea shanties from the novels of Toni Morrison to the paintings of the Zanzibar born black British artist Lubaina Himid and from King Kong to the travels of Frederick Douglass and Paul Robeson The book places such figures as the African American traveller and Barbary slave narrator Robert Adams and the West Indian slave narrator Mary Prince in a Black Atlantic context that explicates them fully A chapter on the Titanic disaster shows how diasporan Africans composed oral poems about the disaster to criticise the discriminatory practices of its owners and racial imperialism Overall the book argues for the crucial importance of Black Atlantic cultures in the formation of our modern world Moreover it argues that looking at Black culture and history through a national lens is distorting and reductive

Legba's Crossing Heather Russell, Katherine Clay Bassard, 2011-05-01 In Haiti Papa Legba is the spirit whose permission must be sought to communicate with the spirit world He stands at and for the crossroads of language interpretation and form and is considered to be like the voice of a god In Legba's Crossing Heather Russell examines how writers from the United States and the anglophone Caribbean challenge conventional Western narratives through innovative use disruption and reconfiguration of form Russell's in depth analysis of the work of James Weldon Johnson Audre Lorde Michelle Cliff Earl Lovelace and John Edgar Wideman is framed in light of the West African aesthetic principle of she a quality ascribed to art that transcends the prescribed boundaries of form she is linked to the characteristics of improvisation and flexibility that are central to jazz and other art forms Russell argues that African Atlantic writers self consciously and self reflexively manipulate dominant forms that prescribe a certain trajectory of for example enlightenment civilization or progress She connects this seemingly postmodern meta analysis to much older West African philosophy and its African

Atlantic iterations which she calls the Legba Principle      Sucking Salt Meredith Gadsby, 2006 Examines the literature of black Caribbean emigrant and island women including Dorothea Smartt Edwidge Danticat Paule Marshall and others who use the terminology and imagery of sucking salt as an articulation of a New World voice connoting adaptation improvisation and creativity offering a new understanding of diaspora literature and feminism Provided by publisher      Clear Word and Third Sight Catherine A. John, 2003-10-31 An exploration of the implicit and explicit ways that an alternate African diasporic consciousness grounded in folk mores is expressed in Afro Caribbean writing      Queer Narratives of the Caribbean Diaspora Z. Pecic, 2013-10-21 This book examines the concept of queer theory and combines it with the field of diaspora studies By looking at the queer diasporic narratives in and from the Caribbean it conducts an inquiry into the workings and underpinnings of both fields      The Best Novels of the Nineties Linda Parent Leshner, 2015-11-17 This reader's guide provides uniquely organized and up to date information on the most important and enjoyable contemporary English language novels Offering critically substantiated reading recommendations careful cross referencing and extensive indexing this book is appropriate for both the weekend reader looking for the best new mystery and the full time graduate student hoping to survey the latest in magical realism More than 1 000 titles are included each entry citing major reviews and giving a brief description for each book      Twentieth-Century Caribbean Literature Alison Donnell, 2007-05-07 This bold study traces the processes by which a history and canon of Caribbean literature and criticism have been constructed It offers a supplement to that history by presenting new writers texts and critical moments that help to reconfigure the Caribbean tradition Focusing on Anglophone or Anglocreole writings from across the twentieth century Alison Donnell asks what it is that we read when we approach Caribbean Literature how it is that we read it and what critical ideological and historical pressures may have influenced our choices and approaches In particular the book addresses the exclusions that have resulted from the construction of a Caribbean canon rethinks the dominant paradigms of Caribbean literary criticism which have brought issues of anti colonialism and nationalism migration and diaspora double colonised women and the marginalization of sexuality and homosexuality to the foreground seeks to put new issues and writings into critical circulation by exploring lesser known authors and texts including Indian Caribbean women's writings and Caribbean queer writings Identifying alternative critical approaches and critical moments Twentieth Century Caribbean Literature allows us to re-examine the way in which we read not only Caribbean writings but also the literary history and criticism that surround them      Literary Black Power in the Caribbean Rita Keresztesi, 2020-11-11 Literary Black Power in the Caribbean focuses on the Black Power movement in the anglophone Caribbean as represented and critically debated in literary texts music and film This volume is groundbreaking in its focus on the creative arts and artists in their evaluations of and insights on the relevance of the Black Power message across the region The author takes a cultural studies approach to bring together the political with the aesthetic enriching an already fertile debate on the era and the subject of Black Power in the Caribbean region The chapters discuss various aspects of Black Power in the Caribbean on the pages of journals and magazines at contemporary conferences that radicalized academia to join forces with communities in fiction and essays by writers and intellectuals in calypso and reggae music and in the first films produced in the Caribbean Produced at the 50th anniversary of the 1970 Black Power Revolution in Port of Spain Trinidad this timely book will be of interest to students and academics focusing on Black Power Caribbean literary and cultural studies African diaspora and Global South radical political and cultural theory

The Routledge Companion to Anglophone Caribbean Literature Michael A. Bucknor, Alison Donnell, 2011-06-14 The Routledge Companion to Anglophone Caribbean Literature offers a comprehensive critically engaging overview of this increasingly significant body of work The volume is divided into six sections that consider the foremost figures of the Anglophone Caribbean literary tradition and a history of literary critical debate textual turning points identifying key moments in both literary and critical history and bringing lesser known works into context fresh perspectives on enduring and contentious critical issues including the canon nation race gender popular culture and migration new directions for literary criticism and theory such as eco criticism psychoanalysis and queer studies the material dissemination of Anglophone Caribbean literature and generic interfaces with film and visual art This volume is an essential text that brings together sixty nine entries from scholars across three generations of Caribbean literary studies ranging from foundational critical voices to emergent scholars in the field The volume's reach of subject and clarity of writing provide an excellent resource and springboard to further research for those working in literature and cultural studies postcolonial and diaspora studies as well as Caribbean studies history and geography

Encyclopedia of the African Diaspora Carole Boyce Davies,2008-07-29 The authoritative source for information on the people places and events of the African Diaspora spanning five continents and five centuries The field of African Diaspora studies is rapidly growing Until now there was no single authoritative source for information on this broad complex discipline Drawing on the work of over 300 scholars this encyclopedia fills that void Now the researcher from high school level up can go to a single reference for information on the historical political economic and cultural relations between people of African descent and the rest of the world community Five hundred years of relocation and dislocation of assimilation and separation have produced a rich tapestry of history and culture into which are woven people places and events This authoritative accessible work picks out the strands of the tapestry telling the story of diverse peoples separated by time and distance but retaining a commonality of origin and experience Organized in A Z sections covering global topics country of origin and destination country the work is designed for easy use by all

The Diasporan Self J. Lee Greene,2008 Drawing directly from the authors novels essays and interviews Greene extracts synthesizes and narrativizes a foundational myth that the novelists collectively generate This diasporan myth and its accompanying theory of Western black Being are grounded in the historical black African diaspora Together they seek to explain the history and nature of Western blacks and thus give rise to key aspects of form and meaning in the texts Greene discusses The Diasporan Self convincingly establishes the self theorizing nature of these postmodern novels constructing from them a critical vocabulary germane to their production and interpretation

Ex-centric Writing Annalisa Pes,Susanna Zinato,2014-10-16

The concern with identity and belonging with place displacement is a major feature of postcolonial literature and the theme of alienation cannot but be topical in the literatures of the countries that have experienced the cultural shock and bereavement and the physical and psychic trauma of colonial invasion The purpose of this volume is to qualify the difference one is faced with when a postcolonial ex centric text is addressed by collecting essays concerned with writers from Southern Africa the Caribbean Australia the Indian subcontinent and Asian diaspora s While giving contextual specifics their due it shows how the theme of alienation when perceived through the anamorphic lens of madness is magnified and charged with an excruciatingly questioning and destabilizing power laying bare political as well as existential and moral urges From the ex centric broadly exilic position it is the ideology and practice of colonialism that demand to be rubricated as psychopathology More broadly as these essays highlight in fiction the mad character s ex centric vision is a continuous warning against the temptation to believe in those discourses that pass themselves off as reflecting the given natural order of things     A
