Research Issues in the Learning and Teaching of Algebra Sigrid Wagner,Carolyn Kieran,2018-12-07 First Published in 1989 We clearly know more today about teaching and learning mathematics than we did twenty years ago and we are beginning to see the effects of this new knowledge at the classroom level In particular we can point to several significant sets of studies based on emerging theoretical frameworks To establish such a framework researchers must be provided with the opportunity to exchange and refine their ideas and viewpoints Conferences held in Georgia and Wisconsin during the seventies serve as examples of the role such meetings can play in providing a vehicle for increased communication synthesis summary and cross disciplinary fertilization among researchers working within a specialized area of mathematical learning This monograph holds selected papers from four more recent conferences on Research Agenda in Mathematics Education

Adolescent Risk Behavior and Self-Regulation Franz Resch,Peter Parzer,2021-04-12 This book is based on the idea that increasing juvenile risk behaviours like substance abuse nonsuicidal self injury and antisocial or suicidal behaviour allow adolescents to fulfill developmental tasks like identity formation and regulation of self worth Narcissistic self exploitation mobility tasks flexibility and the challenges of new media exert social pressure on parental figures distracting and putting strain on their mental resources which in turn changes and even destroys the emotional dialogue with their offspring If children themselves experience neglect and lack of emotional bonding resulting in a lack of self regulating capacities risk behaviours are the consequence The book combines different views in the psychological social and metatheoretical domains It consists of three parts developmental problems of young people diagnosis of risk behaviours in the nosological framework and presentation of new morbidity with an increase in symptom prevalence The book also discusses the threat of the acceleration of social processes and the risks of postmodern society
