Biological terms: Interphase, Anaphase, Metaphase, Telophase, Collenchyma, phloem, Sclerenchyma, Parenchyma, cuticula, Transpirations, stomata, neuron, organic compound, connective tissue, chromatin, chromosome, foramen magnum, axial skeleton, cranium
Chemistry of life	Cells
Difference between organic and inorganic compounds	Difference between animal cell and plant cell
Examples of organic and inorganic compounds	All the cell organelles and functions/rolls
Monomers of all organic compound	Describe the build of the nucleus, mitochondria, and chloroplast
Elements of all the organic compounds	Investigation: Osmose and diffusion (Look at the apparatus that we use and how to set up this Investigation)
Vitamins A, B, C, D, and E, and there deficiency diseases they can cause	Explain osmose and diffusion
Enzymes
- Lock and key model
- Function of enzymes
Influence of temperature and pH on enzyme action
Mitosis	Plant tissue
All the phases can identify and give reasons for your answers	Build and function of: Collenchyma, Sclerenchyma, Parenchyma, Phloem, Xylem and stomata
Product of Mitosis	Definition of tissue
Difference between telophase in plant cells and animal cells
Biological importance of Mitosis
Cancer: - Uncontrolled cell division and growth: Causes and treatment of cancer
	Function and build of: Stomata, Xylem, and root hair
	Adaptions of Xylem for movement of water upwards
Animal tissue	Plant organs
Name and identify all the animal tissues and where in the human body are they located.	The labels and functions of the dorsiventral leaf.
Functions of all the animal tissues	Adaptions of the different parts of the leaf
Name all the connective tissues	Definition of an organ
Support and transport in plants	Support in animals
Labels of dicotyledonous stem and root	All the labels of the skeleton
Difference between a dicotyledons root and stem	Where do we find long bones in the skeleton
	Function of the skeleton
Investigation: The rate of transpirations (Potometer)
The effect of environmental factors on transpiration (Wind, Temperature and Light.)

How America Stacks Up Edward Alden, Rebecca Strauss, 2016-02-01 American leadership in the world is built on the foundation of its economic strength Yet the United States faces enormous economic competition abroad and threats to its economy at home In How America Stacks Up Economic Competitiveness and U S Policy Edward Alden Bernard L Schwartz senior fellow at the Council on Foreign Relations and director of the Renewing America initiative and Rebecca Strauss associate director of Renewing America focus on those areas of economic policy that are the most important for reinforcing America s competitive strengths Covering education transportation trade and investment corporate tax worker retraining regulation debt and deficits and innovation How America Stacks Up shows how in a highly competitive global economy these seemingly domestic issues are all crucial to U S success in the global economy The line between domestic economic policy and foreign economic policy is now almost invisible and getting these policies right matters for more than just U S living standards The United States ability to influence world events rests on a robust competitive economy But without further investment in education infrastructure and innovation Alden and Strauss show the United States runs the risk of endangering its greatest competitive advantage Through insightful analysis and engaging graphics How America Stacks Up outlines the challenges faced by the United States and prescribes solutions that will ensure a healthy competitive U S economy for years to come

Global guidance framework for the responsible use of the life sciences ,2022-09-13 The framework aims to provide global perspectives on principles tools and mechanisms to support Member States and relevant stakeholders to mitigate and prevent biorisks and govern dual use research The framework adopts the One health approach and focuses on the role that responsible life sciences research can play in preventing and mitigating risks caused by accidents inadvertent or deliberate misuse with the intention to cause harm to humans nonhuman animals plants and agriculture and the environment The framework is primarily intended for those who have responsibilities in the governance of biorisks such as policy makers and regulators in charge of developing national policies to harness the potential benefits of the life sciences while constraining their risks The framework is also directed towards scientists and research institutions educators trainers project management staff funding bodies publishers editors the private sector and all relevant stakeholders that are part of the research life cycle The governance of biorisks is an issue that should engage all countries although countries will have different contexts needs and starting points Mitigating these risks will require individual and collective actions among different stakeholders and disciplines Mitigating biorisks and governing dual use research is a shared responsibility

Keeping Women in Science Kate White,2015-01-05 Keeping Women in Science examines the careers of women and men at a large Australian research institute and the challenges that women with or without children experience often resulting from direct and indirect discrimination and being positioned as outsiders The research found a huge generational change between the Baby Boomers the current science leaders and Gen X and Gen Ys Younger women and men reject the traditional model of a successful scientist a single male for whom science is like a religious vocation Instead they seek new models for doing science that support dual careers work flexibility and work life balance ECIC2014-Proceedings of the 6th European Conference on Intellectual Capital Dagmar Cagánová, Miloš Čambál, 2014-10-04 The Oxford Handbook of Deaf Studies in Learning and Cognition Marc Marschark, Harry Knoors, 2020 Oxford Handbooks offer authoritative and up to date reviews of original research in a particular subject area Specially commissioned chapters from leading figures in the discipline give critical examinations of the progress and direction of debates as well as a foundation for future research Oxford Handbooks provide scholars and graduate students with compelling new perspectives on a wide range of subjects in the humanities social sciences and sciences Book jacket Active Learning in College Science Joel J. Mintzes, Emily M. Walter, 2020-02-23 This book explores evidence based practice in college science teaching It is grounded in disciplinary education research by practicing scientists who have chosen to take Wieman's 2014 challenge seriously and to investigate claims about the efficacy of alternative strategies in college science teaching In editing this book we have chosen to showcase outstanding cases of exemplary practice supported by solid evidence and to include practitioners who offer models of teaching and learning that meet the high standards of the scientific disciplines Our intention is to let these distinguished scientists speak for themselves and to offer authentic guidance to those who seek models of excellence Our primary audience consists of the thousands of dedicated faculty and graduate students who teach undergraduate science at community and technical colleges 4 year liberal arts institutions comprehensive regional campuses and flagship research universities In keeping with Wieman's challenge our primary focus has been on identifying classroom practices that encourage and support meaningful learning and conceptual understanding in the natural sciences The content is structured as follows after an Introduction based on Constructivist Learning Theory Section I the practices we explore are Eliciting Ideas and Encouraging Reflection Section II Using Clickers to Engage Students Section III Supporting Peer Interaction through Small Group Activities Section IV Restructuring Curriculum and Instruction Section V Rethinking the Physical Environment Section VI Enhancing Understanding with Technology Section VII and Assessing Understanding Section VIII The book's final section IX is devoted to Professional Issues facing college and university faculty who choose to adopt active learning in their courses The common feature underlying all of the strategies described in this book is their emphasis on actively engaging students who seek to make sense of natural objects and events Many of the strategies we highlight emerge from a constructivist view of learning that has gained widespread acceptance in recent years In this view learners make sense of the world by forging connections between new ideas and those that are part of their existing knowledge base For most students that knowledge base is riddled with a host of naïve notions misconceptions and alternative conceptions they have acquired throughout their lives To a considerable extent the job of the teacher is to coax out these ideas to help students understand how their ideas differ from the scientifically accepted view to assist as students restructure and reconcile their newly acquired knowledge and to provide opportunities for students to evaluate what they have learned and apply it in novel circumstances Clearly this prescription demands far more than most college and university scientists have been prepared for From Food Scarcity to Surplus Ashok Gulati,Yuan Zhou,Jikun Huang,Alon Tal,Ritika

Innovation Frank Boons,Andrew McMeekin,2019 The Handbook of Sustainable Innovation maps the multiple lineages of research and understanding that constitute academic work on how technological change relates to sustainable practices of production and consumption. Leading academics contribute by mapping the general evolution of this academic field, our understanding of sustainable innovation at the firm, user and systems level, the governance of sustainable innovation and the methodological approaches used. The Handbook explores the distinctiveness of sustainable innovation and concludes with suggestions for generating future research avenues that exploit the current diversity of work while seeking increased systemic insight.

Method of Systems Potential (MSP) Applications in Economics: Emerging Research and Opportunities Pushnoi, Grigori, 2017-02-10. Modeling techniques provide ample opportunities for progress across numerous fields. When analyzing complex systems, new methods allow for a deeper understanding of system dynamics. Method of Systems Potential (MSP) Applications in Economics: Emerging Research and Opportunities is an innovative source of academic research that examines the Method of Systems Potential for complex systems analysis in economical contexts. Highlighting critical perspectives on topics such as system efficiency, adaptive algorithms and variable parameters, this book is ideally designed for researchers, academics, graduate students and practitioners interested in the latest uses and applications of modeling techniques.
