The Hoodsman - Frisians of the Fens Skye Smith,2019-04-10 Cover Flap In the first two books in this series the young porter Raynar survived the battles of 1066 first at Stamford bridge and then at Hastings road In this third book the year is 1067 and he is spreading the word that the Normans are coming to all of the small villages in the Fens of Lincolnshire Towards the Wash from Hereward s town of Bourne he helps some Frisian axemen rescue their village from the Sheriff's men and after he is injured he is nursed back to health by the village women. Nursed by the tall slender fair wonderful and totally self-assured Frisian women. Of course he falls in love. In the first two books the elder Raynar completely got away with killing King William Rufus in 1100. In this third book he must deal with the news that the new King Henry the son of his worst enemy plans to marry the daughter of his old friend and lover. About the Author: Skye Smith is my pen name. My ancestors were miners and shepherds near Castleton in the Peaks District of Derbyshire. I have been told by some readers that this series reminds them of Bernard Cornwell's historical novels and have always been delighted by the comparison. This is the third of my Hoodsman series of books and you should read the first Killing Kings before you read this book. All of the books contain two timelines linked by characters and places. The current story is set in the era of King Henry I in the 1100s while the longer flashback story is set in the era of King William I after 1066. I have self-published twelve The Hoodsman historical adventure novels and one Companion reference book for the series.
