Almezaini, Jean-Marc Rickli, 2016-12-08 Small states are often believed to have been resigned to the margins of international politics. However, the recent increase in the number of small states has increased their influence and forced the international community to incorporate some of them into the global governance system. This is particularly evident in the Middle East where small Gulf states have played an important role in the changing dynamics of the region in the last decade. The Small Gulf States analyses the evolution of these states' foreign and security policies since the Arab Spring. With particular focus on Oman, Qatar and the United Arab Emirates, it explores how these states have been successful in not only guaranteeing their survival but also in increasing their influence in the region. It then discusses the security dilemmas small states face and suggests a multitude of foreign and security policy options ranging from autonomy to influence in order to deal with this. The book also looks at the influence of regional and international actors on the policies of these countries. It concludes with a discussion of the peculiarities and contributions of the Gulf states for the study of small states' foreign and security policies in general. Providing a comprehensive and up-to-date analysis of the unique foreign and security policies of the states of the Gulf Cooperation Council (GCC) before and after the Arab Spring, this book will be a valuable resource for students and scholars of Middle East studies, foreign policy and international relations.

Genocide, Mass Atrocity, and War Crimes in Modern History James Larry Taulbee, 2017-02-06 Defining genocide as an international crime, this two-volume set provides a comparative study of historical cases of genocide and mass atrocity, clearly identifying the factors that produced the attitudes and behaviors that led to them. It discusses the reasons for rules in war and examines how the five principles laid out in the Geneva Conventions and other international agreements have functioned in modern warfare. Written by an expert on international politics and law, Genocide, Mass Atrocity, and War Crimes in Modern History: Blood and Conscience is an easy-to-understand resource that explains why genocides and other atrocities occur, why humanity saw the need to create rules that apply during war, and how culture, rules about war, and the nature of war intersect. The first volume addresses the history and development of the normative regimes that define genocide and mass atrocity. Through a comparative study of historical cases that pay particular attention to the factors involved in producing the attitudes and behaviors that led to the incidents of mass slaughter and mistreatment, the author identifies the reasons that genocides and mass atrocities in the 20th century were largely ignored until the early 1990s and why even starting then, responses were inconsistent. The second book discusses why rules in war exist, which factors may lead to the adoption of rules, what defines a war crime, and how the five fundamental principles laid out in the Geneva Conventions and other international agreements have actually functioned in modern warfare. It also poses and answers the interesting question of why we should obey rules when our opponents do not The final chapter examines what actions could serve to identify future situations in which mass atrocities may occur and identifies the problems of timely humanitarian intervention in international affairs Political Handbook of the World 2018-2019 Tom Lansford, 2019-03-19 The Political Handbook of the World provides timely thorough and accurate political information with more in depth coverage of current political controversies than any other reference guide The updated 2018 2019 edition will continue to be the most authoritative source for finding complete facts and analysis on each country's governmental and political makeup Compiling in one place more than 200 entries on countries and territories throughout the world this volume is renowned for its extensive coverage of all major and minor political parties and groups in each political system It also provides names of key ambassadors and international memberships of each country plus detailed profiles of more than 30 intergovernmental organizations and UN agencies This comprehensive update will include coverage of current events issues crises and controversies from the course of the last two years including Elections across Europe Referendum in Ireland Rohingya genocide in Myanmar The Venezuelan dictatorship The renaming of Swaziland to eSwatini Qatar diplomacy changes Historic meeting between the United States and North Korea Establishment of a new governing coalition in Liberia The Undisclosed Facts of South Sudan History Aguer Barac Kuot Rual, 2021-02-26 Before South Sudan got its independence Sudan was at civil wars for two centuries The first civil war started in 1955 and ended in 1972 in an Agreement signed in Addis Ababa The Accords gave South Sudan Autonomy Government but was terminated later after ten years and also after the abolition laws apply all over the Sudan The September Laws has discriminately particular group bases on races religion and colour and ethnicity Because Sharia laws were applied all over the country the officers of the South Sudan army of 105 and 104 battalion rejected Jafaar order by threatening to quell Jafaar order military As a result Numery send machines forces to Bor to quell Kerubino mutiny in May 1983 Because Jafar order was resist the fighting erupted at Battalion 105 Barack in Bor where Kerubino forces defeated and a large number of Jafaar forces killed including Jafaar second commander Because William Nyong was accused by aliening with Kerubino and Anya Anya two forces Therefore President Jafaar Numery issued order of arresting him and he is brought to Khartoum for trial After Bor and Ayod wars was over the SPLM A was formed with the two different ideologies separation and secular united Sudan The separatist and unionist ideology was the cause of the split and the death of many founding fathers of the nation SPLM A In 1997 the split groups signed the agreement known as Khartoum Agreement with regime in Khartoum In 2002 the SPLM A and some of the split groups re joined once again and unify their forces with Garang's forces until Comprehensive Peace Agreement CPA signed in Nairobi Kenya in 2005 After CPA the Transitional Government of National Unity was formed in Sudan and the rights of self determination were exercised and the 99.9% vote for separation leading to the declaration of independence of the South Sudan on 9 July 2011 After 2 years from independence the war within SPLM Kiir and Riek broke out in Juba where thousands killed Due to some reservations from the Kiir and Machar
