Nouth West University Prospectus 2016:

Bright Star in the Present Prospect Ian Dunn, 2015-10-19 An illustrated history of the University of Chester charting its progress from the foundation as Chester Diocesan Training College in 1839 to the achievement of university status in 2005 and subsequent consolidation as a leading higher education institution in the region Self-Tracking Btihaj

Ajana, 2017-10-01 This book provides an empirical and philosophical investigation of self tracking practices In recent years there has been an explosion of apps and devices that enable the data capturing and monitoring of everyday activities behaviours and habits Encouraged by movements such as the Quantified Self a growing number of people are embracing this culture of quantification and tracking in the spirit of improving their health and wellbeing The aim of this book is to enhance understanding of this fast growing trend bringing together scholars who are working at the forefront of the critical study of self tracking practices Each chapter provides a different conceptual lens through which one can examine these practices while grounding the discussion in relevant empirical examples From phenomenology to discourse analysis from questions of identity privacy and agency to issues of surveillance and tracking at the workplace this edited collection takes on a wide and yet focused approach to the timely topic of self tracking It constitutes a useful companion for scholars students and everyday users interested in the Quantified Self phenomenon The Outlaw Ocean Ian Urbina, 2019-08-20 NATIONAL BESTSELLER

A riveting adrenaline fueled tour of a vast lawless and rampantly criminal world that few have ever seen the high seas There are few remaining frontiers on our planet But perhaps the wildest and least understood are the world s oceans too big to police and under no clear international authority these immense regions of treacherous water play host to rampant criminality and exploitation Traffickers and smugglers pirates and mercenaries wreck thieves and repo men vigilante conservationists and elusive poachers seabound abortion providers clandestine oil dumpers shackled slaves and cast adrift stowaways drawing on five years of perilous and intrepid reporting often hundreds of miles from shore Ian Urbina introduces us to the inhabitants of this hidden world Through their stories of astonishing courage and brutality survival and tragedy he uncovers a globe spanning network of crime and exploitation that emanates from the fishing oil and shipping industries and on which the world s economies rely Both a gripping adventure story and a stunning expos this unique work of reportage brings fully into view for the first time the disturbing reality of a floating world that connects us all a place where anyone can do anything because no one is watching The Corporation as a Protagonist in Global History, c. 1550-1750

, 2018-12-10 William A Pettigrew and David Veevers put forward a new interpretation of the role Europe s overseas corporations played in early modern global history recasting them from vehicles of national expansion to significant forces of global integration Across the Mediterranean Atlantic Indian Ocean and Pacific corporations provided a truly global framework for facilitating the circulation movement and exchange between and amongst European and non European communities bringing them directly into dialogue often for the first time Usually understood as imperial or colonial commercial enterprises The Corporation as a Protagonist in Global History reveals the unique global sociology of overseas corporations to provide a new global history in which non Europeans emerged as key stakeholders in European overseas enterprises in the early modern world Contributors include Michael D Bennett Aske Laursen Brock Liam D Haydon Lisa Hellman Leonard Hodges Emily Mann Simon Mills Chris Nierstrasz Edgar Pereira Edmond Smith Haig Smith and Anna Winterbottom
