Nouvelle Théologie and Sacramental Ontology Hans Boersma,2009-05-08 In the decades leading up to the Second Vatican Council the movement of nouvelle th ologie caused great controversy in the Catholic Church and remains a subject of vigorous scholarly debate today In Nouvelle th ologie and Sacramental Ontology Hans Boersma argues that a return to mystery was the movement s deepest motivation Countering the modern intellectualism of the neo Thomist establishment the nouvelle theologians were convinced that a ressourcement of the Church Fathers and of medieval theology would point the way to a sacramental reintegration of nature and the supernatural In the context of the loss suffered by both Catholics and Protestants in the de sacramentalizing of modernity Boersma shows how the sacramental ontology of nouvelle th ologie offers a solid entry point into ecumenical dialogue The volume begins by setting the historical context for nouvelle th ologie with discussions of the influence of significant theologians and philosophers like M hler Blondel Mar chal and Rousselot The exposition then moves to the writings of key thinkers of the ressourcement movement including de Lubac Bouillard Balthasar Chenu Dani lou Charlier and Congar Boersma analyses the most characteristic elements of the movement its reintegration of nature and the supernatural its reintroduction of the spiritual interpretation of Scripture its approach to Tradition as organically developing in history and its communion ecclesiology that regarded the Church as sacrament of Christ In each of these areas Boersma demonstrates how the nouvelle theologians advocated a return to mystery by means of a sacramental ontology

The Thomistic Response to the Nouvelle Theologie Raymond-Léopold Bruckberger,Réginald Garrigou-Lagrange,Michel Labourdette,Marie-Joseph Nicolas,2023-03-17 Makes available new translations from French of works by the leading Thomists in the mid 20th century debate surrounding ressourcement theologians in the Catholic Church The articles were authored by Dominican Fathers Reginald Garrigou Lagrange Michel Labourdette Marie Joseph Nicolas and Raymond Bruckberger The volume contains sixteen articles thirteen of which have never appeared in English All the major critical responses of the Dominican Thomists to the nouvelle th ologie are here presented chronologically according to the primary debates carried on respectively in the journals Revue Thomiste and Angelicum A lengthy introduction describes the unfolding of the entire debate article by article and explains and references the ressourcement interventions

Luce Irigaray and the Question of the Divine Alison Martin,2000 This study examines Luce

Irigaray's oeuvre through the question of the divine focusing upon her contention that women need a female divine if they are about to become subjects. It attempts to demonstrate that the issue of the divine should not be considered as one aspect of her thought but that it is central to her philosophy of sexual difference. Hence Irigaray's critique of patriarchy is presented as a critique of the dominance of a religion of masculinity that favours a single universal. Her proposal for two-sexed universal divines is explored along with her specific suggestions for female divine ideals. Particular emphasis is given to her engagements with Marx, Nietzsche and Hegelianism and to the mode of her adoption of Christianity. The study applauds the radical profundity of Irigaray's philosophy of sexual difference while remaining critical of the universalism in her notion of the divine for the doubt it casts upon the realization of a sexed culture. The New Jerusalem Messenger, 1869

Nouvelle Théologie - New Theology Jürgen Mettepenningen, 2010-04-01 This is an introduction to the most influential movement in Catholic theology in the 20th century which prepared the ground for the Second Vatican Council. It sheds new light on the theological movement that led up to and inspired the Second Vatican Council and is a most needed contribution to the ongoing heated discussions about the hermeneutics of the Council. Mystic in the New World: Marie de l'Incarnation (1599-1672) Anya Mali, 2021-11-01 As one of the first female missionaries to the New World and the author of a classic mystical autobiography, Marie de l'Incarnation has long been seen as an exemplary type reflecting the mood and aims of the Catholic Reformation. In contrast to studies which portray her against the backdrop of religious trends in Catholic Reformation France, this book argues that the New France wilderness was the crucial context for the formation of her spiritual identity. Marie de l'Incarnation brought her traditional notions to bear on her encounter with the Amerindians but was soon compelled to adjust her views on the natives and the nature of religious experience. A close textual analysis of her writings makes it clear that her mysticism was informed by the images of her tradition but also gave new meaning to old concepts. Beyond its relevance for those interested in this mystic, the book addresses the broader issue of shifting attitudes and boundaries in early modern religious life and demonstrates the need for more variegated typologies of mystical experience in studies on spiritual literature. La Vierge Marie et le plan divin : nouvelles études philosophiques sur le christianisme: Marie vue dans le plan divin Auguste Nicolas, 1856

Called to be the Children of God Carl E. Olson, Fr. David Vincent Meconi, S.J., 2016 This book gathers fourteen Catholic scholars to present, examine and explain the often misunderstood process of deification. The fifteen chapters show what becoming God meant for the early Church for St Thomas Aquinas and the greatest Dominicans and for St Francis and the early Franciscans. This book explains how this understanding of salvation played out during the Protestant Reformation and the Council of Trent. It explores the thought of the French School of Spirituality, various Thomists, John Henry Newman, John Paul II and the Vatican Councils and it shows where such thinking can be found today in the Catechism of the Catholic Church. No other book has gathered such an array of scholars or provided such a deep study into how humanity's divinized life in Christ has received many rich and various perspectives over the past two thousand years This book seeks to bring readers into the central mystery of Christianity by allowing the Church's greatest thinkers and texts to speak for themselves demonstrating how becoming Christ like and the Body of Christ on earth is the only ultimate purpose of the Christian faith
