Writing an expository essay outline

In order to create a profession expository essay it is necessary to follow three golden rules:

1. The statements taken from different articles must be clearly stated in the essay and the development of this statement in the essay should not be different from its development in the original article. Therefore no “meaning deformations” will occur, but the main point of the original article will be emphasized.
2. The analysed event of situation should be review from the position of several sources thus making the expository essay stay focused on the context and very objective.
3. The conclusions in an expository essay should never be a surprise for the reader as they need to be easily traced throughout the essay. The analysis and the conclusions have to be always connected to each other. The reader should never have to guess what the author meant and never have a problem following the essay’s reasoning.

Expository essay Structure

A proper structure of an expository essay is a way to make it as effective as possible.

1. A narrow topic is presented
2. A thesis statement must express the main essence of the essay
3. The topic is developed through different opinions
4. The conclusion is made according to the summary of the presented above opinions

Expository essay format

The expository essay format implies some vital specifications:

1. The paragraphs supporting the thesis statement are supposed to have one main topic-line. The rest of the sentences are to be directly related to this topic-line. This makes it easier for the reader to trace the logical movement of the essay.
2. Conclusion is a place of logical end of the essay analysis but not for nay type of new information.
3. The conclusion in an expository essay always restates the thesis sentence and supports the main topic-line of the essay. The ending must be memorable.

with special attention to English language learners Tim Boals Executive Director of WIDA Linguistic perspectives from the classroom, 2004 English for Professional and Academic Purposes Miguel F. Ruiz-Garrido, Juan Carlos Palmer, Inmaculada Fortanet-Gómez, 2010 English in academic and professional settings has received great attention over the last 50 years as its use has become a key asset for anyone interested in improving his/her chances of communicating internationally. However, it still offers rich opportunities for teachers and researchers working on English in specific settings. The aim of English for Professional and Academic Purposes is to offer an overview of several topics within the field of discourse analysis applied to English in academic and professional domains. The book compiles contributions from different origins ranging from Japan to the USA and several European countries and covers English as a native second foreign and international language. It also deals with various specialities including academic writing, business discourse or English for medicine, nursing, maritime industry and science and engineering. This volume is divided into three sections: Discourse Analysis of English for Academic Purposes, Professional English and EPAP Pedagogy, since it was conceived as a contribution to the research on how English is analysed as both the discourse of and for effective communication in academic and professional settings and how it can be applied to teaching. This manuscript offers some fresh insights for those involved or interested in this field of expertise in an attempt to shed some light on its latest innovations.

Learning to Teach English in the Secondary School Jon Davison, Caroline Daly, 2019-06-27 Fully updated to reflect changes in teacher education and the curriculum, the Fifth Edition of Learning to Teach English in the Secondary School explores the background to debates about teaching the subject alongside tasks, teaching ideas and further reading to expand upon issues and ideas raised in the book. Including chapters on planning, changes to the assessment system, language teaching and cross-curricular aspects of secondary teaching, this new edition features changes in policy and practice including the most recent GCSE reforms, a new chapter on Media literacy in English, a consideration of modern digital technology and how it underpins good practice in all areas of English teaching and learning, and cross-referencing to guidance on assessment and well-being and resilience in the core text Learning to Teach in the Secondary School. A key text for all student teachers, Learning to Teach English in the Secondary School combines theory and practice to present a comprehensive introduction to the opportunities and challenges of teaching English in the secondary school.

Corpus Linguistics for English for Academic Purposes Vander Viana, Aisling O'Boyle, 2021-12-30 This book shows how corpus analyses can enhance students, practitioners and researchers' knowledge of academic language. The book provides a reader-friendly discussion of the key concepts, practices and research applications of corpus linguistics which are relevant to the EAP community. The volume empowers readers to compile and analyze EAP-relevant corpora to support their practice, draws on open access resources, allowing readers in all contexts to engage in corpus analyses, examines how corpus studies have advanced the description of spoken, written and computer-mediated academic discourses, and contains numerous reflective and hands-on tasks.
