Washington s past and present relations with some of the worst elements in power in Khartoum Book jacket The Ideological Scramble for Africa Frank Gerits,2023-03-15 In The Ideological Scramble for Africa Frank Gerits examines how African leaders in the 1950s and 1960s crafted an anticolonial modernization project Rather than choose Cold War sides between East and West anticolonial nationalists worked to reverse the psychological and cultural destruction of colonialism Kwame Nkrumah s African Union was envisioned as a federation of liberation to challenge the extant imperial forces the US empire of liberty the Soviet empire of equality and the European empires of exploitation In the 1950s the goal of proving the potency of a pan African ideology shaped the agenda of the Bandung Conference and Ghana s support for African liberation while also determining what was at stake in the Congo crisis and in the fight against white minority rule in southern and eastern Africa In the 1960s the attempt to remake African psychology was abandoned and socioeconomic development came into focus Anticolonial nationalists did not simply resist or utilize imperial and Cold War pressures but drew strength from the example of the Haitian Revolution of 1791 in which Toussaint Louverture demanded the universal application of Europe s Enlightenment values The liberationists of the postwar period wanted to redesign society in the image of the revolution that had created them The Ideological Scramble for Africa demonstrates that the Cold War struggle between capitalism and Communism was only one of two ideological struggles that picked up speed after 1945 the battle between liberation and imperialism proved to be more enduring Europe's Scramble for Africa: Why Did They Do It? , The Scramble for Africa
