Mouhot,2020-09-28 Alexander Henri Mouhot was born at Montbliard on 15th May 1826 of parents not rich but respectable His father occupied a subordinate post in the administration under Louis Philippe and the Republic and expended nearly the whole of his salary in the education of his two sons even undergoing many privations for that purpose His mother a teacher of considerable merit whose memory is held in respect by all who knew her died young greatly through overwork and fatigue in 1844 M Mouhot first studied philology in his own country intending to become a teacher but before long a strong leaning for the natural sciences easy to be understood in the country of Cuvier and of Laurillard gave a new direction to his mind and this with his ardent desire to see other countries determined his vocation His first profession enabled him to extend his researches and while he perfected himself in science he continued to follow the arduous and thorny path of the professor Having a thorough knowledge of his own language and being a good Greek scholar it was not difficult for him to acquire with facility both Russian and Polish during his stay in that vast northern empire which he traversed from St Petersburg to Sebastopol and from Warsaw to Moscow He began as a teacher but soon became an artist after the discovery of Daguerre which impressed him strongly he mastered its mechanical parts and determined to carry the new invention into foreign lands This afforded to him the means of an existence conformable to his wishes He soon made affectionate friends in the highest classes of society in Russia took out his professor's diploma there and in that capacity was admitted into several establishments both public and private among others to that of the cadets of Voronezh still he felt deeply the condition of the serfs a condition which Alexander II moved by generous sentiments wished now to reform This state of things made a painful impression on the heart of the young Frenchman and on his return to his own country he gave vent to his feelings in a book called Slavery in Russia and in order to engage better the attention of the reader he wove it into the form of a novel in which he was enabled to employ the resources of illustration and to depict the manners of the country This work however which touched on many of the leading questions of the day was never published and is only mentioned here as an illustration of his generous feelings Sea King of Barnegat Russell Duryee Smith,1918 King Henry VI, parts 1-3 William
