Grieve, 2013-01-01 Three years after his return from the Alaskan wilderness Guy Grieve was living on the Isle of Mull in Scotland with his wife Juliet and their two young sons Sick of the weather perennial colds and their increasingly routine lifestyle they'd all been getting restless Finally Guy and Juliet broke in spectacular style they're mortgaged their house and bought a yacht Her name was Forever The plan To pick up Forever from her mooring in the Leeward Antilles off the coast of Venezuela and sail around the West Indies before crossing the Atlantic back to Scotland This was despite the fact that Guy skipper of the expedition had almost no sailing experience Travelling around the lush tropical islands of the Caribbean and up the waterways of America the family had countless sublime moments as they discovered the freedoms of sailing anchoring in deserted bays night passages under star studded skies and entering New York by water greeted by the Statue of Liberty But there were also testing times as they grappled with seasickness and bad weather coping with young children at sea and learning to run a large complex boat Far from being the idyllic escape they'd envisaged the journey forced Guy and Juliet to draw on reserves of courage and endurance they never knew they had Wry funny and buccaneering this is a compelling tale of bravery and endeavour out on the open sea Official Gazette of the United States Patent and Trademark Office, 1992
