Theologies of Childhood and the Children of Africa Jan Grobbelaar, Gert Breed, Alfred Brunson, Marcia J. Bunge, Sam Ndogo, Hannes (J.J.) Knoetze, Nico Vorster, 2016-12-31 The purpose of this book is to combine perspectives of scholars from Africa on Child Theologies from a variety of theological sub disciplines to provide some theological and ministerial perspectives on this topic The book disseminates original research and new developments in this study field especially as relevant to the African context In the process it addresses also the global need to hear voices from Africa in this academic field It wants to convey the importance of considering Africa's children in theologising The different chapters represent diverse methodologies but the central and common focus is to approach the subject from the viewpoint of Africa's children. The individual authors varied theological sub-disciplinary dispositions contribute to the unique and distinct character of the book. Almost all chapters are theoretical, orientated with less empirical research, although some of the chapters refer to empirical research which the authors have done in the past. Most of the academic literature in the field of Theologies of Childhood is from American or British European origin. The African context is fairly absent in this discourse, although it is the youngest continent and presents unique and relevant challenges. This book was written by theological scholars from Africa focussing on Africa's children. It addresses not only theoretical challenges in this field but also provides theological perspectives for ministry with children and for important social change. Written from a variety of theological sub-disciplines, the book is aimed at scholars across theological sub-disciplines, especially those theological scholars interested in the intersections between theology, childhood studies, and African cultural or social themes. It addresses themes and provides insights that is also relevant for specialist leaders and professionals in this field. No part of the book was plagiarised from another publication or published elsewhere before.

Religion, Women's Health Rights, and Sustainable Development in Zimbabwe: Volume 1 Sophia Chirongoma, Molly Manyonganise, Ezra Chitando, 2022-08-26. This volume brings to the fore the interface of religion, women's sexual reproductive health and rights (SRHR) and the sustainable development goals (SDGs) in Zimbabwe. It emphasizes that empowering African women is a pivotal pillar for attaining sustainable development. Contributors discuss the need for implementing structural changes as a prerequisite for social progress and development to occur in Southern Africa. They interrogate the extent to which religious beliefs and practices either promote or impede women's SRHR. The contributors also proffer several ways in which addressing the themes of health for all and equality for all women and girls can make a meaningful contribution towards the fulfillment of the goals set for Agenda 2030.

Sankofa: Appreciating the Past in Planning the Future of Early Childhood Education, Care and Development in Africa UNESCO, 2023-04-01

Serving Higher Purposes Ihron Rensburg, 2020-11-05. Universities of the 21st century and beyond must be about teaching, learning, research, excellence, creativity, and innovation as much as they must be about enabling the destiny of students, communities, and nations to realize their potential. UJ succeeded in her vision and responsibilities to transform the divisions, prejudices, and limitations that often restrain the advancement of society. The story of UJ's transition to an inclusive, diverse, dynamic, bold, and purposeful institution of learning demands to be read by everyone South African, African, and beyond. It is a story of how to be an object rather than the subject of history while dynamically shaping our shared futures, laying a solid foundation for future generations to be advocates and architects for social change and cohesion. It is a story of courageous and visionary leadership. The book offers our nation profound lessons in leadership that should enrich all our efforts to transform institutions in a sustainable way to play a meaningful role in building ONE NATION.

Handbook of Research on Theoretical Perspectives on Indigenous Knowledge Systems in Developing Countries Ngulube, Patrick, 2016-09-12. There has been a growth in the use, acceptance, and popularity of indigenous knowledge. High rates of poverty and a widening economic divide is threatening the accessibility to western scientific knowledge in the developing world where many indigenous people live. Consequently, indigenous knowledge has become a potential source for sustainable development in the developing world. The Handbook of Research on Theoretical Perspectives on Indigenous Knowledge Systems in Developing Countries presents interdisciplinary research on knowledge management, sharing, and transfer among indigenous communities. Providing a unique perspective on alternative knowledge systems, this publication is a critical resource for sociologists, anthropologists, researchers, and graduate-level students in a variety of fields.
