Norton Field Guide Mother Tongue:

Fostering Linguistic Equality Sarah E. Hercula, 2020-05-11 This book offers one possible solution in the pursuit of linguistic equality by exploring how the Structural Inquiry of Stigmatized English SISE approach to linguistics pedagogy can be used to empower linguistics students and researchers as ambassadors for change By using stigmatized varieties of English including African American English Chicano English and Appalachian English as the primary linguistic data analyzed through detailed structural analysis the SISE approach fosters linguistically principled and pluralistic language attitudes among students as evidenced by the author's own empirical research in applying the method This book not only advocates for linguistic equality but also provides teachers and researchers with the tools they need to counteract prejudicial attitudes and disinformation about language both in and outside the classroom It will be an essential resource for linguistics teachers applied linguists curriculum developers students and scholars of language attitudes and language variation and anyone seeking more information about the relationships between diversity in equality and language

Routledge Handbook of Descriptive Rhetorical Studies and World Languages Weixiao Wei, James Schnell, 2023-05-12 The Routledge Handbook of Descriptive Rhetorical Studies and World Languages offers a useful collection of papers that presents rhetorical analysis of the discursive practice in different cultural settings Covering issues from America to Europe and Asia and topics from politics to media education to science agriculture to literature and so on the handbook describes how language can guide listeners' interpretations alter their perceptions and shape their worldviews This book offers a solid foundation for rhetorical studies to become an essential discipline in arts and humanities engendering innovative theory and applications in areas such as linguistics literature history cultural studies political science and sociology This handbook will be crucial for students and researchers in areas such as literature and linguistics communication studies political science and arts and humanities in general This book will also be useful to social science education business law science and engineering departments due to its coverage of rhetoric in a multidisciplinary and multilingual context Chapter 16 of this book is available for free in PDF format as Open Access from the individual product page at www.routledge.com It has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license

The Columbia Guide to Standard American English Kenneth G. Wilson, 1996-08-30 In the most reliable and readable guide to effective writing for the Americans of today Wilson answers questions of meaning grammar pronunciation punctuation and spelling in thousands of clear concise entries His guide is unique in presenting a systematic comprehensive view of language as determined by context Wilson provides a simple chart of contexts from oratorical speech to intimate from formal writing to informal and explains in which contexts a particular usage is appropriate and in which it is not The Columbia Guide to Standard American English provides the answers to questions about American English the way no other guide can with an A-Z format for quick reference over five thousand entries more than any other usage book sensible and useful advice based on the most current linguistic research a convenient chart of levels of speech and writing geared to context both descriptive and prescriptive entries for guidance guidelines for nonsexist usage individual entries for all language terms A vibrant description of how our language is being spoken and written at the end of the twentieth century and how we ourselves can use it most effectively The Columbia Guide to Standard American English is the ideal handbook to language etiquette friendly sensible and reliable Researcher's Guide to HUD Data, with Notes on Related Information Sources United States. Department of Housing and Urban Development. Committee on Facilitating Computer Use, 1978 Literacy and Power Hilary Janks, 2009-10-16 Hilary Janks addresses key questions about literacy and power in this landmark text that is both engaging and accessible Her central argument is that competing orientations to critical literacy education domination power access diversity design foreground one over the other but are crucially interdependent and need to work together to create possibilities for redesign and social action that serve a social justice agenda She examines the theory underpinning each orientation and develops new theory in the argument for interdependence and integration Sitting at the interface between theory and practice constantly moving from one to the other the text is rich with examples of how to use these orientations in real teaching contexts and how to use them to counterbalance one another In the groundbreaking final chapter Janks considers how the rationalist underpinning of critical literacy tends to exclude the non rational shows ways of working beyond reason pleasure and play desire and the unconscious and makes the case that these need to be taken seriously given their power to cut across the work of critical literacy educators working from any orientation The Moment of Speech Annie Morrison, 2021-11-18 Annie Morrison creator of the Morrison Bone Prop abandons the notion that language and thought are mainly processed in the left cerebral hemisphere and coaches the actor to speak from the heart Through this method words acquire physical properties such as weight texture colour and kinetic force Think about Martin Luther King Mao Zedong or Malala Yousafzai potent speech impacts external events And internally it forms and shapes the world of the speaker Seeing articulation as a purely mechanical skill is detrimental to an actor's process it is crucial to understand what language is doing on a biological level This workbook is invaluable for actors both professional and in training and also for voice and speech teachers

Language Learning, Power, Race and Identity Liz Johanson Botha, 2015-07-02 This book investigates the strategies and identities of colonials who have learned the languages of colonised people using the context of isiXhosa in South Africa While power in language learning research has traditionally focused on the powerful native speaker and the relatively disempowered learner this book studies the inverse where elites are the language learners The author analyses the life histories of four white South Africans who acquired isiXhosa during the apartheid years The book offers insights into relationships between language power race identity and change in their stories and in the broader context of apartheid and post apartheid South Africa with its conflicted history and disparities This book should appeal to researchers interested in studies of language acquisition narrative and identity as well as those more broadly interested in South African history
