DYNAMIC TRUTH is a reprint of the author's groundbreaking dissertation on Change in Seventh day Adventist Theology Submitted in 1995 and initially published in 1999 Part I and 2000 Part II it is the first and only in depth study to date dealing with the issue of doctrinal development from an Adventist perspective Part I analyzes the intricate problem of doctrinal development and presents a historical survey of theories of doctrinal change classifying them in three ideal types In the author's view a dialectic approach concerned about substantial continuity as well as authentic change can best avoid the pitfalls of dogmatic immobilism and revisionism Part II provides a detailed study of the problem of doctrinal change in a Seventh day Adventist setting It analyzes the extent nature and direction of doctrinal developments in the light of the religious background of the church and the social forces at work in it It also discusses the church's response to doctrinal adjustments and Ellen G White's involvement in and conception of doctrinal change The study concludes that Adventist teachings have been significantly affected by theological and hermeneutical developments under the impact of social forces nudging the church closer towards evangelical Protestantism Ellen White co-founder of the church was personally involved in theological change Her concept of doctrinal development shows a remarkable depth of insight and presents a well balanced approach to the dynamics of faith and truth
