films like Thelma and Louise and television's Road Rules 2 Landscapes of the New West Krista Comer, 1999 In the early 1970s empowered by the civil rights and women's movements a new group of women writers began speaking to the American public Their topic broadly defined was the postmodern American West By the mid 1980s their combined works made for a bona fide literary groundswell in both critical and commercial terms However as Krista Comer notes despite the attentions of publishers the media and millions of readers literary scholars have rarely addressed this movement or its writers Too many critics Comer argues still enamored of western images that are both masculine and antimodern have been slow to reckon with the emergence of a new far more feminine postmodern multiracial and urban west Here she calls for a redesign of the field of western cultural studies one that engages issues of gender and race and is more self conscious about space itself_ especially that cherished symbol of western authenticity open landscape Surveying works by Joan Didion Wanda Coleman Maxine Hong Kingston Leslie Marmon Silko Barbara Kingsolver Pam Houston Louise Erdrich Sandra Cisneros and Mary Clearman Blew Comer shows how these and other contemporary women writers have mapped new geographical imaginations upon the cultural and social spaces of today's American West Abortion, Choice, and Contemporary Fiction Judith Wilt, 1990-06-28 In recent years public debate has raged over the issue of maternal choice While personal testimony and political argument have received widespread attention artistic representations of birth and abortion have been submerged Judith Wilt offers the first look at how contemporary writers tell and retell the stories that shape our perceptions about abortion She reveals that the struggle to plot these painful complex narratives of choice control guilt loss and liberation has preoccupied an astonishing number of our most distinguished novelists male and female alike Readers of twentieth century novels are more likely to encounter plots centered on maternal choice than those dealing with the more traditional problems of courtship and marriage In the opening of the book Wilt discusses real case histories of several women After studying the ambiguities of their decisions she turns to their counterpoints depicted in contemporary fiction Working from a feminist perspective Wilt traces the theme of maternal choice in works by Margaret Atwood Margaret Drabble Joan Didion Mary Gordon Alice Walker Toni Morrison Gloria Naylor Marge Piercy Thomas Keneally Graham Swift Ernest Hemingway William Faulkner John Barth John Irving and others Behind the political medical and moral debates on abortion Wilt argues is a profound psychocultural shock at the recognition that maternity is passing from the domain of instinct to that of conscious choice Although never wholly instinctual maternity's potential capture by consciousness raises complex questions The novels Wilt discusses portray worlds in which principles are endangered by sexual inequality male power and hidden male fear of abandonment impotence female submission and covert rage and in the case of black maternity the hideous aftermath of slavery Wilt provides a resonant new context for debates whether political or personal on the issue of abortion and maternal choice Ultimately she enables us to rethink how we shape our own identities and lives Uncle John's Bathroom Reader Plunges Into Hollywood Bathroom Readers' Hysterical Society, 2012-06-01 Take One Action Uncle

Survival City Tom Vanderbilt,2010-04-15 On the road to Survival City Tom Vanderbilt maps the visible and invisible legacies of the cold war exhuming the blueprints for the apocalypse we once envisioned and chronicling a time when we all lived at ground zero In this road trip among ruined missile silos atomic storage bunkers and secret test sites a lost battleground emerges amid the architecture of the 1950s accompanied by Walter Cotten s stunning photographs Survival City looks deep into the national soul unearthing the dreams and fears that drove us during the latter half of the twentieth century A crucial and dazzling book masterful and for me at least intoxicating Dave Eggers A genuinely engaging book perhaps because Vanderbilt is skillful at conveying his own sense of engagement to the reader Los Angeles Times A retracing of Dr Strangelove as ordinary life Greil Marcus Bookforum
