

From a linguistic perspective, however, the Q&A is not necessarily the original position that this author intended. The flow of the article is somewhat self-understanding in the context of the Q&A but flows like a monologue. This structure does not appear to be a conventional writing technique. My interpretation of this structure is that the author wanted to present a strong opinion on a certain issue in the context of the Q&A but did not want to appear to be taking a position. The author's intention was to present a strong opinion on a certain issue in the context of the Q&A but did not want to appear to be taking a position. The author's intention was to present a strong opinion on a certain issue in the context of the Q&A but did not want to appear to be taking a position.
