Reading Guide for “Of Plymouth Plantation” by William Bradford

Your textbook has four objectives for this passage:

1. Read and analyze an account of the Pilgrims’ arrival in America
2. Identify and explain elements of Puritan literature
3. Analyze Bradford’s diction and writing style
4. Define all vocabulary words.

Here is a reading guide to help you learn these objectives. This guide breaks the objectives into smaller questions or tasks. As you work through them, please:

- ☒ Paraphrase (put in your own words) your answers. You will not receive any credit for answers written word for word from the book.
- ☒ Be sure to write in pen and give clear, specific answers to each question. Some #s contain more than one question.

1. On what chapter does the selection start?
 2. Why do you think Bradford uses the 3rd person plural, “they” instead of writing this as a first person narrative?
 3. Look back at pg. 68 in the background section “The Time and Place” to figure out what “seele,” “hull” and “halyards” means. Record each meaning.
 4. What happened to John Howland? (Paraphrase)
 5. Who was the only person to die on the Mayflower?
 6. Where did the Pilgrims end up stopping?
 7. What does “providence” mean? Whose good providence helped the Pilgrims?
