Edinburgh Companion to Irvine Welsh Berthold Schoene, 2010-07-05 The subcultural enfant terrible of devolutionary protest and rebellion Irvine Welsh is now widely acknowledged as the founding father of a whole new tradition in post devolution Scottish writing The unprecedented worldwide success of Trainspotting magnified by Danny Boyle's iconic film adaptation revolutionised Scottish culture and radically remoulded the country's self image from dreamy romantic hinterland to agitated metropolitan hotbed Though Welsh's career is very much an ongoing phenomenon his influence on contemporary Scottish literary history is already quite indisputable and enduring Porno? Chic! Brian McNair, 2013-01-17 Porno Chic examines the relationship between the proliferation of pornography and sexualised culture in the West and social and cultural trends which have advanced the rights of women and homosexuals Brian McNair addresses this relationship with an analysis of trends in sexualised culture since 2002 linked to a transnational analysis of change in sexual politics and sex gender relations in a range of societies from the sexually liberalised societies of advanced capitalism to those in which women and homosexuals remain tightly controlled by authoritarian patriarchal regimes In this accessible jargon free book

Brian McNair examines why those societies in which sexualised culture is the most liberalised and pervasive are also those in which the socio economic and political rights of women and homosexuals have advanced the most The Digested Read John Crace,2005-12 Literary ombudsman John Crace never met an important book he didn't like to deconstruct From Salman Rushdie to John Grisham Crace retells the big books in just 500 biting satirical words pointing his pen at the clunky plots stylistic tics and pretensions of Big Ideas as he turns publishers golden dream books into dross SPIN ,2002-10 From the concert stage to the dressing room from the recording studio to the digital realm SPIN surveys the modern musical landscape and the culture around it with authoritative reporting provocative interviews and a discerning critical ear With dynamic photography bold graphic design and informed irreverence the pages of SPIN pulsate with the energy of today's most innovative sounds Whether covering what's new or what's next SPIN is your monthly VIP pass to all that rocks The Encyclopedia of Twentieth-Century Fiction, 3 Volume Set Brian W. cultural and political events in Britain during the 2000s shape contemporary British fiction The means of publishing buying and reading fiction changed dramatically between 2000 and 2010 This volume explores how the socio political and economic turns of the decade bookended by the beginning of a millennium and an economic crisis transformed the act of writing and reading Through consideration of among other things the treatment of neuroscience violence the historical and youth subcultures in recent fiction the essays in this collection explore the complex and still powerful relation between the novel and the world in which it is written published and read This major literary assessment of the fiction of the 2000s covers the work of newer voices such as Monica Ali Mark Haddon Tom McCarthy David Peace and Zadie Smith as well as those more established such as Salman Rushdie Hilary Mantel and Ian McEwan making it an essential contribution to reading defining and understanding the decade Spin, 2002 Alive and Kicking David Bryce, 2011-11-04 From running with the infamous Calton Tongs to running Calton Athletic David Bryce's life story is a remarkable account of crime violence alcoholism and drug addiction in Glasgow's gangland A respected hard man Bryce worked his way through most of HM's prisons in Scotland before an epiphany in 1977 made him realise that he was a hopeless alcoholic who needed help A five year battle followed during which he sank into the abyss of heroin addiction before finally getting clean In 1985 in an effort to help others who were struggling against substance abuse Bryce set up Calton Athletic a football team and social group made up solely of recovering drug addicts Reformed gangster Jimmy Boyle was one of the first to have faith in Bryce and Calton Athletic but the club eventually won widespread respect Gordon Brown then a young MP was so impressed that he wrote an article for The Observer which led to a TV film starring Lenny Henry and Robbie Coltrane In the 90s Ewan McGregor Irvine Welsh and the Trainspotting crew sought Bryce's advice and friendship during the making of the internationally acclaimed cult film while Robbie Williams begged to switch nationality and play for Calton Athletic in an England v Scotland celebrity charity match Bryce's uncompromising belief that the only way to come off drugs is to go cold turkey and stay completely clean saw him clash with government agencies over the harm reduction policy of recent years The club's statutory funding was withdrawn in 1998 but today Calton Athletic are still providing an invaluable lifeline while the official drugs policy has become increasingly discredited Alive and Kicking is an inspirational tale of survival and success against the odds

Edinburgh Companion to Contemporary Scottish Literature Berthold Schoene, 2007-04-11 The Edinburgh Companion to Contemporary Scottish Literature examines the ways in which the cultural and political role of Scottish writing has changed since the country's successful referendum on national self rule in 1997 In doing so it makes a convincing case for a distinctive post devolution Scottish criticism Introducing over forty original essays under four main headings Contexts Genres Authors and Topics the volume covers the entire spectrum of current interests and topical concerns in the field of Scottish studies and heralds a new era in Scottish writing literary criticism and cultural theory It records and critically outlines prominent literary trends and developments the specific political circumstances and aesthetic agendas that propel

Edinburgh David Carroll, 2011-07-01 From Sir Arthur Conan Doyle to Irvine Welsh, a fresh look at an ancient region's connection to the written word. Edinburgh enjoys a long and impressive literary heritage and can claim connections with some of the world's most famous writers. This history mixes anecdotes, musings and serious analysis to explore the impact of the city upon literature. Sir Arthur Conan Doyle, Robert Louis Stevenson and Sir Walter Scott were all natives of the city, while Robert Burns, Charles Dickens, J. M. Barrie and Samuel Johnson were just a few of those who forged links with what William Cobbett described as the finest city in the kingdom. Edinburgh has provided the setting for countless novels over the years, not least in more recent times with Muriel Spark's The Prime of Miss Jean Brodie and Irvine Welsh's Trainspotting. The book concludes with a look at Edinburgh's impressive annual International Book Festival, the biggest celebration of the written word in the world.

Intercultural Screen Adaptation Stewart Michael Stewart, 2020-03-27 Intercultural Screen Adaptation offers a wide-ranging examination of how film and television adaptations and non-adaptations interact with the cultural, social and political environments of their national, transnational and post-national contexts. With screen adaptations examined from across Britain, Europe, South America and Asia, this book tests how examining the processes of adaptation across and within national frameworks challenges traditional debates around the concept of nation in film media and cultural studies. With case studies of films such as Under the Skin (2013) and T2 Trainspotting (2017) as well as TV adaptations like War and Peace (2016) and Narcos (2015, 2017), Intercultural Screen Adaptation offers readers an invigorating look at adaptations from a variety of critical perspectives, incorporating the uses of landscape, nostalgia and translation.

Postcolonial George Eliot Oliver Lovesey, 2017-08-17 This book examines the range of the colonial imaginary in Eliot's works, from the domestic and regional to ancient and speculative colonialisms. It challenges monolithic hegemonic views of George Eliot, whose novelistic career paralleled the creation of British India and also dismissals of the postcolonial as ahistorical. It uncovers often overlooked colonized figures in the novels. It also investigates Victorian Islamophobia in light of Eliot's impatience with ignorance, intolerance and xenophobia, as well as her interrogation of the make-believe of endings. Drawing on a range of sources, from Eugène Bodichon's Algerian anthropological texts, the Persian journals of John Martyn and postmodern re-engagements, Postcolonial George Eliot has implications for an understanding of the globalization of English, the decolonization of disciplinarity and periodization and the roots of present-day conflict in the wider Mediterranean world.
